DIGITAL DIVIDE MUST BE MINIMISED: VICE-PRESIDENT

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Chennai

THE 10th edition of TNIE's ThinkEdu Conclave got off to a flying start on Tuesday, with Vice-President M Venkaiah Naidu urging State governments to implement the National Education Policy in letter and spirit, and advocating for education in one's mother tongue to be promoted. "First and basic learning should be in one's mother tongue. Local language is like eyesight and other languages are like spectacles," he remarked.

With the pandemic disrupting the education sector and forcing teachers, students, and parents to quickly adapt to online media, educators must be recognised for their flexibility and commitment, Naidu said. However, the digital divide must be minimised, he added.

The day was also packed with other stalwarts who spoke at length about the state of education in India. Rajya Sabha MP Subramanian Swamy in his session 'The Chinese Model: Can India Catch Up?' answered that question with a cheeky, yet confident, "I would like to overtake China." He discussed a multitude of other topics with senior journalist Kaveree Bamzai. Congress MP Shashi Tharoor spoke about the shortage of medical seats, revision of History textbooks and his experience of Hinduism vs Hindutva. Delhi's Deputy CM, Manish Sisodia, TN Higher Education Minister K Ponmudy, and Karnataka Higher Education Minister Dr Ashwathnarayan CN discussed plans for better education.

Over 200 participants joined each session online, besides over 215 students and 150 delegates in person on Day One at ITC Grand Chola. More on: P16

PM'S MESSAGE

I am delighted to learn about the tenth edition of ThinkEdu, the annual Education Conclave of The New Indian Express. The theme of the conclave - "Remaking India, Asserting Bharat" is admirable.

Education aids in personality building and character development. Our focus is on universalisation of quality education. Through policy-based and participation-based approach, our indefatigable efforts have focused on transforming the education sector.

Our education reforms are in tune with national values and national goals. Through inclusive education, our vision is to empower our youth and make them future-ready.

Digital technology has enabled holding of regular classes during the pandemic. Measures like e-Vidya, One Class One Channel and digital labs are creating an education infrastructure which will go a long way in helping the youth of the country. The National Digital University, announced in this year's Union Budget, is another innovative step aimed at ensuring access to high-quality higher education.

As we celebrate Amrit Mahotsav of our independence, we are tireless in our efforts to make the nation self-reliant in every sector. The mantra of new India is - 'Compete and Conquer'.

The theme of the conclave reflects our commitment to take India to newer heights of excellence. The collective brainstorming by the gathering of students, academics, professionals and students at the conclave will lead to a practical roadmap to further expand and strengthen the education sector.

Best wishes for all success of the tenth edition of ThinkEdu.

Indians moved out of Sumy amid ceasefire

The US, UK and EU contemplate ban on Russian oil imports

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE

ALL Indians who were stranded in Sumy near the Russian border were moved to Poltava in central Ukraine on Tuesday as Russia held on to its promise of a ceasefire. "They are currently en route to Poltava, from where they will board trains to western Ukraine. Flights under Operation Ganga are being prepared to bring them back home," said Arindam Bagchi, spokesperson, Ministry of External Affairs.

While the development is a big relief for India, Russia seems headed for more international sanctions with the US, UK and the European Union contemplating a ban on Russian oil imports. The coordinated measures are meant to deal a heavy blow to Russia's economy, which depends on energy exports. However, it will have ramifications beyond Russia. Reacting sharply to the news, Russia's deputy PM Alexander Novak said a "rejection of Russian oil would lead to catastrophic consequences for the global market", causing prices to touch $300 a barrel. Russia has also threatened to close its main gas pipeline to Germany.

Tuesday's evacuation comes a day after Prime Minister Narendra Modi had a lengthy telephonic conversation with Russian President Vladimir Putin and his Ukrainian counterpart Volodymyr Zelenskyy. Russia later announced ceasefire in Kyiv, Chernigov, Sumy, Kharkov and Mariupol, paving the way for Ukrainian authorities to begin evacuating civilians stranded in those areas.

Earlier, efforts were on to rescue those stranded in Sumy through a humanitarian corridor leading to Russia, but Ukraine rejected the idea.

According to the UN, the war has killed 474 civilians. P9, 12

Centre may intervene to tackle fuel price rise, says Nirmala

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE Union Government, which is concerned about the rising crude oil prices in the international market owing to the Russia-Ukraine war, may make use of budgetary provisions to tackle the situation. Union Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman on Tuesday said that since the spike in crude oil prices will have a bearing on fuel prices in the country, the government will look at ways to cushion the impact.

"Since we import over 85-90 per cent of crude oil, the rise in price is a matter of concern, but alternative sources will also be considered. We are watching the situation closely as to how it pans out. I am conscious about it," she told a select audience during an interactive session on 'Atma Nirbhar Indian Economy', organised by the BJP. The minister hinted at compensating Indian oil companies for the price hike to ensure that consumers do not feel the pinch.

On the Ukraine crisis, Nirmala Sitharaman, while observing that it has posed a lot of challenges, also felt that it has thrown opportunities for countries like India which had seen an increase in wheat export.

Even during the Covid-19 pandemic situation, the country, under the leadership of Prime Minister Narendra Modi, took the opportunity to push the 'Atma Nirbhar' mantra, as over five crore PPE kits were manufactured, one vaccine was developed indigenously and put at the disposal of the world. "The CoWin application was also a contribution to the world, which means the PM's Atma Nirbhar is not just for me and you, but for global welfare", she remarked.

'The middle class is everywhere'

Union Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman asserted that her budget had addressed the concerns of the 'middle class in every sector'. When a participant at an interactive session asked what her budget meant for the middle class, especially as there was no difference in the taxation slabs, she replied, "People will never be happy with what I say, because they want 'a particular answer' and I don't give that. I see the middle class in farmers, those in informal jobs, doing their own business and taking loans from banks, those who want to send their children to study abroad and send money. I also see the middle class in startups looking at the government to support them. So, I will see the middle class everywhere," evoking a huge round of applause.

All-party meeting soon to discuss Mekedatu: CM

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

CHIEF Minister Basavaraj Bommai on Tuesday said that an all-party meeting will be convened next week to discuss the Mekedatu project. He also expressed confidence in getting the necessary environmental clearance from the authorities concerned.

Speaking in the Assembly, the CM said, "I will invite legal experts and leaders from all parties. We will take their opinion and suggestions and work accordingly." He also said that he is personally tracking the issue of environment clearance for the project, "It is before the Union Environment ministry. We have urged them to clear it and I will get it done during my visit to Delhi. Once that is done, we will have to get the Detailed Project Report approved. The case before the Green Tribunal, which was quashed, is now before the Supreme Court," he added.

Bommai said he has already spoken to legal experts twice. "Our stand is clear. Our responsibility is to give water allocated to Tamil Nadu, which we release. We need to discuss about the remaining quantum of water and start the project work at the earliest."

Opposition leader Siddaramaiah said Tamil Nadu is politicising the issue and added that it has no right to stop the project.

MOON MISSION

Chandrayaan-2 observes Argon-40 in lunar exosphere

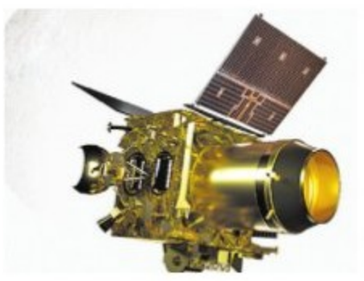
EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

A payload on board India's second moon-orbiting mission Chandrayaan-2 has made a first-of-its-kind discovery on the distribution of one of the noble gases, Argon-40, to study the lunar exosphere as well as the surface from where this gas is understood to have escaped.

The finding is significant considering manned lunar missions are being planned by countries like the USA to set up human bases on the Moon — a mission currently scheduled for 2025 — and there is an increased interest in studying the lunar surface and its atmosphere, the exosphere being the topmost of its layers.

The Chandra's Atmospheric Composition Explorer-2 (CHACE-2), a quadrupole mass spectrometer on Chandrayaan-2 mission made the observations to provide an insight into the dynamics of the lunar exosphere, and on activities of gases emerging through radioactive decay in the first few tens of metres below the lunar surface, India's premier space agency, the Indian Space Research Organisation (ISRO) said on Tuesday.

Noble gases serve as important tracers to understand the processes of surface-exosphere interaction, and Argon-40 (Ar-40) is an important tracer atom to study the dynamics of the lunar exosphere.



Ar-40 originates from the radioactive decay of Potassium-40 (K-40) present below the lunar surface.

Once formed, it diffuses through the inter-granular space in the lunar surface dust and makes its way up to the lunar exosphere through seepage and faults.

The CHACE-2 observations provide details on the spatial variations in Ar-40 through the lunar day covering the equatorial and mid-latitude regions of the Moon.

The importance of Chandrayaan-2's CHACE-2 observations is that although NASA's Apollo-17 (the last of the manned lunar mission carried out in 1972) and Lunar Atmosphere and Dust Environment Explorer (LADEE) — a robotic mission that orbited the Moon and impacted its surface on April 17, 2014, to gather information on lunar atmosphere and determine whether dust is lofted into the lunar sky — detected the presence of Ar-40 in the lunar exosphere, the measurements were confined to the near-equatorial region of the Moon. P5

Citizens fear price hike, tank up on petrol, diesel

Dealers record 60% hike in sales in 72 hours

BANSY KALAPPA @ Bengaluru

FEARS of a hike in petrol and diesel prices triggered panic buying across Karnataka, resulting in a sharp spurt in sales. Oil companies recorded a 60 per cent hike in sales over the past 72 hours.

While the Russia-Ukraine war has impacted crude oil prices, the government held domestic rates steady due to political compulsions. With election results to five state assemblies out on Thursday, there is anxiety that the government may increase fuel prices to more realistic levels.

BR Ravindranath, former Petroleum Dealer Association president, told TNIE that bunks have been recording a sharp increase in petrol and diesel sales through Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. This was also confirmed by IOC Executive Director DL Pramodh. Meanwhile, many dealers complained that they were forced to put up 'No Stock' boards on Tuesday because two oil companies -- HPCL and BPCL – are not supplying the required stocks, raising suspicions that the companies are hoarding. The oil firms are playing dirty to make profits when prices are hiked, they said.

Karnataka Petroleum Dealers Association president Dr Balaji Rao confirmed this, "Dealers have complained about Hindustan Petroleum and Bharat Petroleum not giving stocks to dealers, which is not fair at a time like this."

Many dealers are expecting prices to go up sharply over the next few days. They said they had incurred losses of Rs 6lakh to Rs 10lakh when prices were cut a few months ago by both the central and state governments. Experts say when international crude prices were hovering around $70 a barrel, domestic petrol and diesel prices were around Rs 100, before the price cut. With international rates touching $130 a barrel, the expected price hike could burn a big hole in the pocket. There is also the fear that if Russian crude is banned, prices could zoom past $250 per barrel.

A tweet by Prime Minister Narendra Modi on International Women's Day had a 9.5 minute video clip which was a compliation of numerous "Mann Ki Baat" episodes which highlighted women empowerment. Sireesha Gajani, the first loco pilot from Karnataka to steer an Oxygen Express figured in the video which celebrated women in unconventional roles. The rush of hundreds of cars held up traffic on Bengaluru-Mysore Road for more than 90 minutes. Mohd Ali (retd ACP) and his family members boarded a KSRTC non-stop bus from Mysuru at about 6.45 am, reaching Bengaluru at around 12.15 pm. Speaking to TNIE, they said they were stuck in snarl for about two hours. No one in the bus had any clue about the cause of congestion on a weekday, they added. Traffic Commissioner Venugopal Gowda said the place had given a Women's Day offer and the rush of vehicles held up traffic. The resort authorities said they had over 11,200 visitors on Tuesday.

Foreign funding agencies to study Suburban Rail plan

S LALITHA @Bengaluru

WITH the Finance Ministry recently giving the green signal for external funding of the Rs 15,767-crore Bengaluru Suburban Rail Project (BSRP), an eight-member delegation of foreign funding agencies met top officials of the State government on Tuesday.

The 148.17-km project is being implemented by Rail Infrastructure Development Company (Karnataka) Limited (K-RIDE) which has been tasked with mobilising Rs 7,438 crore through external borrowings while much of the remaining amount will be shared between the central government and the state government. CM Basavraj Bommai, in his maiden budget speech, had reiterated that the BSRP will be ready in six years.

Representatives of the France-based lender, French Development Agency (AFD), and the German-based KFW Development Bank along with Board of Directors of K-RIDE met the Chief Secretary P Ravi Kumar at Vidhana Soudha in this connection.

"The representatives of the lending agencies have come on an assessment visit. This is a preliminary meeting and they have come to study the project in detail," Kumar told TNIE. No major decision was taken today. "It will take around three to four months to arrive at any decision," he added.

AFD delegation members comprised Augustine Delisle, Deputy Director, Benjamin Fouin, Task Team Leader for Transport, South Asia, and Rajnish Ahuja, Sector Portfolio Manager. KFD was represented by Swati Khanna, Senior Sector expert, Palak Thakur, Sector Expert, Ulrich Thomas, Technical expert, Achim Bronner, E&S expert, and Patricia Immler, Senior Portfolio Manager. Tenders have already been floated for civil works for the Mallige Line of the Suburban Rail running for 25 km between Baiyappanahalli and Chikkanabanavara (second corridor). Tenders will be floated for the Heelalige-Rajanakunte line (fourth corridor). The Kengeri-Cantonment-Whitefield and the KSR Bengaluru-Devanahalli will be taken up in due course.

PETER VIDAL

09th March: Today I want to focus on Capricorn, a sign of hidden depths. Many people know this sign as the representative of money and business, but it has a deep role as a sign of spiritual rebirth. In ancient times people noticed that the Sun was in this sign at the winter solstice, 21 December, when the night was longest and the day shortest.

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr. 20)
Your lunar alignments do not ask you to consult with partners and colleagues, they order you. If you don't discuss your plans and share your thoughts then you will have nobody but yourself to blame when things don't work out. The last thing you should do is expect anyone else to carry the can.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 - May 21)
I don't think it will take you long to get going, the reason being that you, more than anyone, are benefiting from a charge of celestial energy of a most peaceable, positive and beneficial nature. Social possibilities are fun just as long as you remain flexible.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)
You will certainly benefit materially from planetary transits through the very base of your solar chart. Even minor developments now will bring in funds in the months and years to come. First, get your savings sorted out. Then work out how you can up your earning potential.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23)
There is everything to play for - and every reason to expect positive results. On the other hand, if you ignore the very vital necessity to confer and consult at every turn, you may soon be dangerously out of step with partners. And that, I have to say, would never do!

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23)
You tend to feel that life is being less than kind to you. Such feelings are rather ironic in view of the wonderful stars you're under at the moment, but may relate to the fact that other people fail to come up to your rather high expectations. Be more tolerant of partners' little failings!

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
You are definitely on the threshold of something very special, but just what it is still unclear. If you're impatient, wait for the next major lunar pattern, which will be along very soon. It's almost time for a new fresh start so, remember, every new beginning needs extra effort from you.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
The time is surely right to put your money where your mouth is. At least, that is what one set of planets is saying. The complete picture, however, suggests that you may be wise to wait for another six or seven days. By then the situation should be much calmer.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
The odd little family argument could creep into the scene, but there really doesn't seem to be anything too much to worry about. I don't think you can be accused of taking anyone for granted, but that is what some people might say. You'll probably have to bend over backwards to convince them that your behaviour has been impeccable.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)
Once again the accent is on partnerships or close relationships, though current issues are now distinctly affected by monetary matters – such as who spent how much on what and when! If you can get these problems sorted out, then emotional complications should also be easier to untangle.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)
Friends and team-mates should be more supportive than usual, at least by the time evening comes. Do bear in mind, though, that arrangements over the next twenty-four hours may be deferred or delayed. And that might be a good thing if it helps get you off the hook.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
Your destiny is not controlled by outside forces. Believe it or not, astrology assumes that every minute of the day you are personally creating your own future. This is why it is important, at present, that you understand your own motivations - and make the most of your current advantages.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
Much depends on the tactics you use to get what you want out of others. Certain people are now familiar with your little ways, so you may have to adopt a completely different approach. But what this should be is not clear at the moment. Perhaps you should look around and see what other people have to offer?

Serosurvey in May to focus on U-15 kids

To see if Omicron contributed to antibodies; Sewage survey shows no new sub-lineages

CHETANA BELAGERE @ Bengaluru

WITH the third wave almost petering out, the Karnataka government is planning to conduct its third serosurvey by May. According to health officials, the Technical Advisory Committee (TAC) had recommended that the survey be done around April, but it has now been deferred to May.

The reason this survey is important is also to assess if the Omicron wave has contributed to sustain the immune response, and if children below 15 are infected in a big way.

"We are working out the plan. It will be done in May-June. The need for sero surveillance has been suggested by experts, and we are in discussion with them," said K V Trilok Chandra, Special Commissioner (Health), BBMP.

> We have asked the health department to focus on that age group as they are unvaccinated. We want to know how Omicron has helped in building antibodies
> TAC Expert

The focus this time is going to be more on children below 15 years of age, and seroprevalence among them, say experts. "We have asked the health department to focus on that age group as they are unvaccinated, and we would also want to know how the Omicron-led third wave has worked in terms of developing antibodies in these children," an expert from TAC said.

Analysing exposure in children will help plan vaccination strategies and also learn if a majority of them have already been exposed to the infection. "If a majority of children do not show antibodies, then either Omicron failed to produce antibodies as it is a mild variant, or that they are not infected, which means this population needs to be vaccinated soon," he said.

Though the number of cases in the state has come down drastically, almost to the pre-third wave level, experts have cautioned the state on strict vigilance. It may be noted that recently, WHO also announced the finding of the BA.3 variant of Omicron and other sub-lineages of this variant from other countries.

"Sewage survey in BBMP zones has been showing only Delta and Omicron's BA.1 and BA.2 lineages. There is no change in the nature of the virus so far in Bengaluru. We are continuously monitoring sewage samples and that will also be an ongoing process," the special commissioner added.

HUMAN MILK BANKS SET UP IN 4 CITIES, A BOON TO INFANTS

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

TO cater to the needs of newborns who cannot be fed by their mothers, the Karnataka government set up 'Human Milk Banks' at four district-headquarters -- Bengaluru, Mysuru, Mangaluru and Belagavi -- on Tuesday, coinciding with International Women's Day.

Inaugurating the 'Amruthadhare Human Milk Bank' and high-risk pregnancy building in the premises of Vani Vilas Hospital, Health Minister Dr K Sudhakar said Karnataka's Infant Mortality Rate is 21 in 1,000, and needs to be brought down by 2030. He said breast milk will help save many lives. "Breast milk is an elixir for kids. No child should be deprived of mother's milk. Unfortunately, a few children are unable to get breast milk due to various reasons like illness or death of the mother, premature delivery etc. This breast milk bank will be a boon and save many infants," Dr Sudhakar said. Till date, the facility was available only at private hospitals. Sudhakar appealed to mothers to come forward to donate breast milk.

Dr CN Reddy, professor of pediatrics, Bowring and Lady Curzon Medical College Hospital, said a human milk bank like this, especially at Vani Vilas, is very important. "Mother's milk contains protein, saline, saturated fat, and increases immunity. Breast milk will be collected from donor mothers using proper equipment, it will pasteurised and frozen. It could be stored for six months," he explained.

He says this milk can be useful for working mothers, pre-term babies and low birthweight babies. Donors will be mothers from the hospital, and milk will be provided free to sick and pre-term babies. Till now, 27 litres of breast milk has been collected, and 21 litres has already been given to 90 children, he stated.

'Issue norms for docs who hold med exam'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

THE Karnataka High Court directed the Principal Secretary to the Health Department to issue a circular reiterating the duties of doctors who conduct medical examination and prepare reports in cases where there may have been sexual assault.

The court passed the order after taking note of instances where doctors showed callousness while preparing a medical report on whether a minor victim was subjected to sexual assault or not.

Referring to a case which came to the notice of the court during the hearing of the bail plea of one Pradeep, who has been booked by the Ramamurthy Nagar police under POCSO Act and IPC, Justice HP Sandesh noted that the victim, in her statement, had not stated whether she was subjected to sexual assault or not. According to the prosecution, she was subjected to sexual assault on December 5, 2020 and a doctor examined the victim two days later. However, the doctor did not give an opinion on whether she was sexually assault or not, the court observed.

The court also noted that the doctor, who appeared before the court, said that she has resigned from service at the KC General Hospital and was practising privately now.

The doctor had forgotten the duty entrusted to her and to give a report when the victim was subjected to medical examination. Hence, it is appropriate that the Health Secretary issue a circular, the court said. Expressing similar views while rejecting the bail plea of Thippeswamy from Davanagere, who was arrested under the POCSO Act for sexual assault on minor girl, the court directed the registry to ask the Health Secretary to also take action against the doctor concerned.

As many as 485 children have escaped from state homes and more than 140 of them have not yet been traced, Women and Child Development minister Halappa Achar told the Council on Tuesday

Poaching game set to begin in Goa: Cong, BJP sharpen trade skills

NAUSHAD BIJAPUR @ Belagavi

POLITICAL developments in Goa have picked up pace after exit polls indicated a possible hung assembly, giving the BJP and Congress 15-17 seats each in the 40-member House. In the coming days, the coastal state is likely to witness resort politics, and some hardnosed horse trading.

Both the BJP and Congress are gearing up to poach each other's legislators to achieve the magic number of 21 to form the government -- the BJP is again likely to resort to Operation Lotus, which it successfully executed in Karnataka and earlier, in Goa. Political analysts say regional parties like MGP, AAP, Goa Forward, TMC and Independents are also crucial in the formation of the new government.

While the Congress leadership is confident that none of its MLAs would switch sides in the event of a fractured outcome, sources said the strong links Panaji MLA (BJP) Atanasio Monsarrate (Babush) has with Congress leaders may come in handy to poach at least a few legislators from the grand old party. The same Monserrate had spearheaded Operation Lotus after the last assembly elections, herding 10 Congress MLAs into the BJP to form the government.

The Congress is trying to gather support from regional parties and potential Independent candidates who have already announced that they are fighting for the BJP's defeat. "If the situation demands, we will try to get the support of all to form the government," said a noted Congress leader from Goa.

Congress MLA from Calangute Michael Lobo said, "Nobody will quit the Congress. Let the BJP try any tactics, use the ED and other agencies, we are united and will not leave the party under any circumstances." Lobo claimed that leaders from other parties are in touch with the Congress, and none from the MGP or the Independents would join the BJP as the latter had already backstabbed them.

He said the Congress would form the government in Goa at 5pm on March 10, and the BJP would be in the opposition.

Meanwhile, Congress leaders P Chidambaram and Dinesh Gundurao arrived in Goa ahead of counting of votes, while KPCC President D K Shivakumar is expected to land in Panaji on Wednesday.

The BJP central leadership is already looking to the Maharashtrawadi Gomantak Party (MGP) for a possible post-poll alliance, and scouting for as many Independents as possible. "Union Minister for Highways Nitin Gadkari's good rapport with the MGP may come in handy if the party falls short of a majority. With at least three or four Independents set to win, most of them and the MGP may rally behind BJP as the party is in power at the Centre. The Congress may also win at least 15 seats but it may not be able to get the support of MGP or Independents," says political analyst Suraj Nandrekar from Goa.

Senior journalist Kishor Naik Gaonkar says the Congress may be able to form a government with the help of Goa Forward, TMC and AAP, only if it manages to get very close to the majority mark of 21 seats. AAP, TMC and Goa Forward may together win four to five seats if predictions by local political pundits are to be believed.

Sources said poaching of MLAs is imminent once the results are out on Thursday. Goa Pradesh Congress Party (GPCC) President Girish Chodankar said, "Baffled by imminent defeat, the BJP hacked the phones of Congress leaders to find a way to come to power illegally again. The BJP misused power and snooped on Congress leaders, including former CM Digambar Kamat." Terming it a serious issue, Digambar Kamat said the BJP should stop resorting to such tactics to come to power.

DKS, TRUSTED CRISIS MANAGER

The Congress has deputed Karnataka unit chief DK Shivakumar to Goa for any crisis management, if required, after declaration of results. He has been tasked with keeping the flock together and taking quick decisions if there is a hung verdict. Shivakumar was sent to Rajasthan during the crisis following Sachin Pilot's rebellion. He had also prevented poaching of Karnataka MLAs in 2018, forcing CM BS Yediyurappa to resign ahead of the floor test. All the Congress candidates will be staying in a resort in North Goa before they move to their counting stations.

CM, Siddu spar over governance

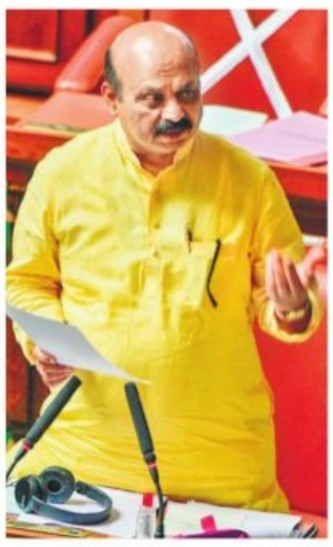
Taking cue from their leaders, members from BJP, Cong get involved in heated exchange

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

THE State Assembly on Tuesday witnessed heated exchanges between Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai and Leader of Opposition Siddaramiah over development works taken up by the BJP and Congress governments.

During the discussion on the state budget, Siddaramaiah accused the government of not making adequate budgetary allocations to various departments, taking Rs 2,69,000 crore loan in three years, not following fiscal discipline and not getting grants from the Centre.

As Siddaramaiah took a dig at the Prime Minister, Bommai hit back, questioning what happened to the Congress's 'Garibi Hatao' slogan. "Poor became poorer. Entire country became poor under the Congress rule," the CM said and added that Congress governments started taking loans and they are responsible for the increase in debts for successive government.



Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai and opposition leader Siddaramaiah speak in the Legislative Assembly on Tuesday

Bommai said the Congress took 50 years to build dams, India was dependent on other countries during the Congress rule and they had failed to even provide food to people. There was no need for taking loans if the Congress governments had managed the administration well, he said. Privatisation of government institutions was started by the Congress government, and natural resources, including mines, were handed over to a few rich people.

Water Resources Minister Govind Karjol said the Congress government did huge injustice to irrigation projects in the state. As the CM and Opposition leaders were speaking at the same time, members from both sides, too, were involved in heated exchanges.

Siddaramaiah said though the financial year is ending, the State Government has not issued orders to start 52 works announced in the budget and some of them were dropped. "That is not the way a pro-people government works," the former CM said.

Explaining allocation for the departments, Siddaramaiah said in his last budget, presented on February 16, 2018, he had allocated Rs 18,112 crore for irrigation. It was Rs 21,180 crore in the 2021-22 budget and Rs 20,660 crore in the 2022-23 budget.

UKRAINE-RUSSIA WAR

Up to medical body to take call on returnees: Sudhakar

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

AS medical students evacuated from war-torn Ukraine stare at uncertainty over the continuation of their education, the State Government on Tuesday said the National Medical Commission (NMC) has to take a decision on their future and states do not have the power to make a new policy.

"The NMC formulates all policies related to medical education and there is no scope for state governments to make any new policy," Medical Education Minister Dr K Sudhakar responded to Congress deputy leader U T Khader's suggestion that the government should help the students with their education.

Around 20,000 Indian students, including many from Karnataka, are studying medicine in Ukraine. Most of them were evacuated and the process is on to bring back others, the minister said. While the evacuation process is on, Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai held a meeting with senior officers from the Medical Education Department and Vice-Chancellor of Rajiv Gandhi Health University to discuss the suggestions to be made to the NMC and on the National Eligibility-cum-Entrance Test(NEET), he said.

For under-graduate courses, 85 per cent of seats are allotted through the Karnataka Examinations Authority (KEA) quota and 15 per cent from NEET counselling. For post-graduate seats, it is 50 per cent each, he said. "The government has decided to give NEET coaching at the taluk level. The PM had also announced that the government fee will be fixed for 50 per cent seats in all private medical colleges," Sudhakar said.

Making efforts to bring Naveen's body: Bommai

The State Government is making all efforts to bring the mortal remains of Naveen who was killed in Russian shelling in Ukraine's Kharkiv last week, said Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai. Speaking to reporters on Tuesday, Bommai said the Naveen's body is kept in a mortuary in Ukraine. "At present, it is not easy to bring the mortal remains to Karnataka. I have spoken to Union External Affairs Minister S Jaishankar. All attempts are being made to bring the body back immediately. Officials of the Indian Embassy, too, are in constant touch with the authorities concerned in this regard," Bommai said.

Govt to amend Act, protect farmers

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

WITH cases of land grabbing being registered against unauthorised cultivation in government land, the State Government has decided to make suitable amendments to the revenue act to protect farmers from harassment.

Law Minister J C Madhuswamy on Tuesday informed the Legislative Assembly that forest rights, land grabbing and land encroachment are different and the government will not tolerate if farmers are harassed and land-grabbing cases are registered against them.

"We will bring an amendment to the existing law so that encroachment of agricultural land is not considered as land grabbing and cases booked at the court in Bengaluru," he said.

The government wanted to take stern action against land grabbing cases in Bengaluru, but that has opened the floodgate, he said and added that they feel ashamed that 200 t0 300 farmers come to the court every day. "We will sort it out," he said.

The minister was responding to Congress MLA H K Patil's demand for constituting a house committee to look into harassment of farmers in Gadag district by Forest Department officials. As many as 776 cases have been registered against farmers accusing them of land grab, he said.

Former chief minister B S Yediyurappa said it is very unfortunate that officials are harassing farmers and this has to stop.

Opposition leader Siddaramaiah, Speaker Vishweshwara Hegde Kageri and members cutting across party lines expressed concern over harassment of farmers.

No waiver of agri loans: Somashekhar

BENGALURU: The State Government has clarified that there is no proposal to waive off agricultural loans availed by farmers who succumbed to Covid-19. Replying to a question by BJP MLC Munirajugowda P M in the Legislative Council on Tuesday, Cooperation Minister S T Somashekhar said among the farmers who lost their lives in the first and second wave of the pandemic, 10,437 of them had availed loans from various cooperative institutions. "The loans borrowed by them is Rs 91.97 crore. The government has not issued any order to waive off the loans," the minister clarified.

Don't talk lightly about women, KSE told

Congress MLC Nazeer Ahmed asked RDPR Minister K S Eshwarappa not to talk about women members lightly, that too on the occasion of International Women's Day. During a discussion, Eshwarappa said he will send a delegation to Kerala to study the system of honorarium to GP members there. MLC Tejasvini Gowda, who was in the Chair, said there were only a few women members in the House and they all should be included in the team. In reply, Eshwarappa said, "I don't know whether men or women, 25 members were elected from local bodies constituencies will be sent to Kerala to study. I did not say whether you are woman or not," he said. Members, including Gowda, burst into laughter.

'Customs duty hike to boost Atma Nirbhar'

DEFENDING the hike in Customs duty on certain imports, Nirmala Sitharaman said that it is to bolster the Atma Nirbhar initiative and is not applicable to intermediary raw materials used by start-ups in the semiconductor sector. India, which had an edge in the past in export of Active Pharmaceutical Ingredients used in the pharma sector, lost out due to predatory pricing by other exporting nations. Hence, Production Linked Incentives have been implemented to make the pharmaceutical sector Atma Nirbhar and to generate jobs, she explained.

Sitharaman pointed out that the sex ratio has also improved to 1,026 females for every 1,000 males between 2014 and 2019, which was previously 970 females for every 1,000 males in 104 gender-sensitive districts across India. The representation of women in panchayats, which was 36 per cent in 2014, has increased to 46 per cent and many states followed the Gujarat model of increasing women's reservation to 50 per cent, she said.

Goodies for Congmen pushing membership drive

ASHWINI M SRIPAD @Bengaluru

A ton of goodies, ranging from phones to refrigerators, have been lined up for Congress workers who can power the party's digital membership drive. In Opposition leader Siddaramaiah's Assembly constituency Badami in Bagalkot district, party workers who enlist new members are eligible for gifts depending on the numbers they achieve.

Ahead of a series of elections in Karnataka, including zilla and taluk panchayat elections and the Assembly polls early next year, the Opposition

A flyer for the Congress membership drive

Congress is heavily focused on its membership drive. KPCC president D K Shivakumar, who is directly monitoring it, has set a target of enrolling 50 lakh members by March 31. To achieve this, party leaders and workers are working hard across the state.

In Badami, posters are being circulated announcing that party workers who rope in 5,000 new members will get refrigerators, LED television sets for 3,000 members and above, and phones for 2,000 members and above. Interestingly, there is no restriction on the number of eligible workers and anyone achieving the targets will get these gadgets.

Hanumanthagowda Yakkappanavara, president of the Badami Block Congress Committee, said they have given a target of 50,000 new members on or before March 31. "So far, we have got 5,000 members. At present, no party worker has reached the targets to be eligible for the gadgets. We have done this to encourage them to get more enrolment and we are hoping they will achieve it," he said.

When asked if this is being done in other constituencies too, he said the party leaders may come up with other initiatives. The goodies are not being given from the party office, but from local leaders. Hanumanthagowda also said that they have informed Siddaramaiah about this initiative, and he had told them to achieve good numbers.

TN has no locus standi on how K'taka uses its water, says Siddu

"BOTH Karnataka and Tamil Nadu have been allotted their share of Cauvery water. They have no locus standi on how we utilise our share of water. Over the last seven years, 582 tmcft of excess water has been released to Tamil Nadu apart from the 177.75 tmcft which is released annually as per the final adjudication. We want the Mekedatu reservoir to utilise this additional water," Opposition leader in the Assembly Siddaramaiah said.

Law and Parliamentary Minister J C Madhuswamy, recalled a The New Indian Express report on Union Jal Shakthi minister Gajendra Singh Shekhawat's statement that the Centre can't solve the Mekedatu row as water is a state subject. "We can only facilitate talks and we are ready to do that," Shekhawat had said.

Irked by this, Siddaramaiah demanded the CM to condemn Shekhawat's statement.

KCR TO ADDRESS YOUTH ON JOBS

₹3,500 to ₹4,000 crore allocated in budget for salaries to new recruits, says State FM

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Wanaparthy

CHIEF Minister K Chandrasekhar Rao's teaser to the unemployed youth to tune-in to their TV sets at 10 am on Wednesday, as he is going to deliver good news to them on the floor of the legislative assembly; has raised hopes on the possibility of the State government issuing jobs notifications, as the state begins dressing up for the electoral battle that lay in the later part of next year.

In fact, Finance Minister T Harish Rao announced at a media interaction after the presentation of the budget, that Rs 3,500 to 4,000 crore was allocated for payment of salaries to new-recruits. However, he did not commit himself to how many jobs would be filled which is now fuelling speculation that the notifications might be for nearly one lakh or even more jobs not only in government but also in other public sector undertakings, utilities, local bodies and so on.

The element of surprise in the Chief Minister's announcement on Tuesday kept everyone guessing over whether the State government is contemplating to announce unemployment dole, which the TRS had promised in its election manifesto. There are also speculations that the CM could pull out something unexpected to please the youth who are deeply disappointed with lack of recruitment.

The CM, who made the announcement towards the end of his address on the outskirts of Wanaparthy town, covered a wide gamut of issues bedevelling the state and said that TRS would strive for the development of Telangana till the last drop of his blood.

Knowledge gap to be bridged by Argon study: ISRO

AS there is a steep latitudinal temperature gradient of the lunar surface, it was a gap area to study the pan-lunar dynamics of Moon's exosphere, which is a temperature-driven process.

In this context, CHACE-2's observations on Ar-40 up to the mid-latitude regions play a significant role to bridge the gap in the knowledge, ISRO said. This was possible because Chandrayaan-2 has a polar orbit while the other two had orbits in a line closer to the Moon's equator.

CHACE-2 is a sequel to the CHACE experiment on the Moon Impact Probe (MIP) of Chandrayaan-1 mission and draws heritage from the Mars Exospheric Neutral Composition Analyser (MENCA) experiment aboard the Indian Mars Orbiter Mission.

The results of the findings are published in the journal Geophysical Research Letters.

3 still trapped in Singareni coal mine

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Peddapalli

THE teams of Singareni Collieries Company Ltd (SCCL) are working tirelessly for the second successive day to rescue at least three miners who lie trapped under the debris in an underground coal mine at the Adriyala Long Wall Project in Peddapalli district, Telangana, since Monday.

In what is turning out to be longest ever rescue mission undertaken by SCCL, teams are labouring to reach the area where the three miners are suspected to be lying under the rubble. They are: Area Safety Officer S Jayaraj, Assistant Manager Tejavath Chaitanya Teja and contract worker Thota Srikanth.

The rescue teams managed to bring three workers out from the rubble on Monday and one more miner on Tuesday but were unable to reach out to the three who are still trapped under the foreboding coal blocks. Those who have been rescued are undergoing treatment at Singareni Area Hospital for injuries sustained in the mishap.

SCCL rescue operations under way in Andriyala long wall project | EXPRESS

The teams' progress is being hampered by the coal blocks falling on them as they are trying to move deeper to reach out to the victims. According to one SCCL officer, coal debris has piled up to a height of 20 metres and reaching to area underneath is turning out to be long, arduous and very cumbersome.

Meanwhile, family members of the victims are pinning hopes that they would come out unscathed. They complain that the officials were not letting them know about the progress the rescue teams are making. This was leading to frayed tempers and bitter arguments with officials.

Manthani MLA Sridhar Babu visited project site and enquired with the SCCL officers about the rescue operation. Later, he consoled the family members of victims.

Reacting to the mishap, Governor Tamilisai Soundararajan suggested to the SCCL to take up periodic auditing of safety measures. "Shocked to hear the accident in SCCL. Share the grief of families affected & pray for their speedy recovery," she tweeted.

Telugu man comes to the rescue of stranded Indians at Polish border

G JANARDHANA RAO
@ Visakhapatnam

WHEN hundreds of Indians, mostly students, were stranded in the war-ravaged Ukraine and finding it difficult with no-proper channel to help them out, Chinta Srikanth emerged as the guiding force to those who are clueless about how to further proceed so as to cross the Ukrainian border. He also helped in tracing the persons who were lost contact and could not be traced.

Srikanth has been the hope for the families to trace and contact their wards in the Poland border. Srikanth hails from Vellacheruvu of Santhamaguluru mandal in Prakasam district and settled in Warsaw 16 years ago. After post-graduation in hotel management from Academy of Management in Warsaw, he slowly started his own venture and now owns at least eight Indian restaurants to meet the needs of Indians in Poland.

Speaking to TNIE from the Poland border, Srikanth Tuesday said that he had the experience of facing the problem when he came to Poland with regard to immigration and local language. "After Russia declared war against Ukraine, hundreds of students rushed to the border in a bid to escape from Ukraine and reach India safely. However, after reaching the border many of them got stuck for several hours. In the alien land, they do not know what to do whom to contact," he said.

Srikant has come forward voluntarily to coordinate and help them find a way out to cross the border. He said since the war began he has been getting phone calls seeking help.

No compulsory language under NEP: Centre

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE Centre on Tuesday cleared its stand before the Karnataka High Court that there is no mention of any compulsory language under the National Education Policy 2020.

Additional Solicitor General MN Naragund, appearing for the Centre, submitted before a division bench of Chief Justice Ritu Raj Awasthi and Justice SR Krishna Kumar that there is no mention of compulsory language in NEP 2020, and therefore, there is no need for re-articulation of provisions.

The submission was made during a hearing of a batch of public interest litigations by Samskrita Bharati (Karnataka) Trust, and other educational institutions, questioning making Kannada a compulsory language in NEP 2020.

In the last hearing, the state government had contended that making Kannada a compulsory language was a policy decision in tune with the recommendations of the VK Gokak Committee report.

The Additional Solicitor General had submitted that making any language compulsory in any particular state on the basis of implementation of the NEP would have vast ramifications and as such, the government of India has to take a decision in consultation with the state government in this regard and hence, sought time to clear the stand of the Union government. Following the clarification, the hearing was adjourned for making submissions by the Advocate General on the next date.

Cabbie held for kidnapping student

ENS @ Bengaluru

THE Vidyaranyapura police on Monday arrested a gang of three men, who had allegedly kidnapped a 21-year-old student and were demanding Rs 7 lakh as ransom. The prime accused is a cab driver, who hatched the kidnap plan after the victim's mother refused him financial help.

The arrested are identified as Ravi G (46), Madesh R (24) and Srinivas R (20), all residents of Thindlu. A senior police officer said that the incident was reported on March 6. Ravi had befriended the victim's mother, and had sought financial help from her several times, but she refused to provide the money. Upset, Ravi along with two of his friends kidnapped the boy. ANOTHER POPULIST T'GANA BUDGET, BUT WHERE IS THE MONEY?

The 2022–23 Telangana Budget, presented in the Assembly by Finance Minister T Harish Rao on Monday, seems to have made no attempt to cut the coat according to the cloth. The result was a bloated ₹2.56 lakh crore Budget, which only served to show how anxious the government was to convince the people that it was committed to various welfare schemes including Dalit Bandhu, double bedroom houses and so on. The outsized allocations made for welfare schemes came as no surprise as the TRS would be seeking a fresh mandate from the people towards the end of next year.

The BJP and the ruling party in Telangana are already at loggerheads, and the Budget has sent out a strong warning to the Centre that it should either chip in with increased funding or get ready to face an even more hostile TRS. The million-dollar question now is: How can Telangana come up with ₹1.08 lakh crore by way of taxes and ₹66,423 crore as non-tax revenue this year alone for funding its schemes, as the Budget has projected, at a time when inflation is all set to rear its ugly head, stunting economic growth? This is sure to affect Telangana too as the costs of petroleum products are expected to register a sharp spike as a direct consequence of the raging Ukraine conflict.

The size of last year's Budget was ₹2.3 lakh crore but up to January 2022, it had receipts of only ₹2.09 lakh crore. The state had expected ₹38,669 crore from the Centre but received only ₹7,303 crore. This is besides the overhang of a ₹3.29 lakh crore cumulative debt burden that Telangana is carrying on its shoulders. Given the turbulent times ahead for the nation's economy and the finance minister's expectation of ₹41,000 crore from the Centre, it is possible that last year might repeat itself. The state might end up with a huge hole in receipts, necessitating pruning of allocations to populist schemes as the year progresses.

LACK OF LEADERSHIP HURTS BJP IN ODISHA

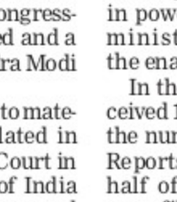
The BJP is in an unenviable position in Odisha. The principal opposition party was delivered such a knock-out punch by the ruling dispensation in the recently concluded panchayati raj elections that it is still reeling. That the urban local body polls will be held soon on March 24 has not made the recovery path easy. The party organisation, shaken to the core, is clueless and groping for ways to chart an effective course of action for another major challenge ahead. There is a visible lack of cohesion as it heads into the final lap of the polls. With confidence dipping, there are reports of aspirants unsure of their fate and filing nominations as independents. This does not augur well for the national party, which fancied its chances in the two critical polls before the 2024 general elections.

The BJP in Odisha as a unit is pulling in all directions. At the top, there is very little agreement among the leaders, which was evident during the panchayat elections. Its senior leaders have been occupied with the Assembly polls across the country leaving the grassroots workers rudderless and demotivated. This is the party that had set itself a Mission 120 under the leadership of Amit Shah not so long ago. Having fared well in the 2019 Assembly and Lok Sabha elections, it was supposed to put up a fight. But lack of leadership, no clear-cut strategy and poor resources have hurt its chances. The challenges just amplify when one pits the state leadership against the giant stature of BJD head and Odisha Chief Minister Naveen Patnaik.

The blame must go to its central leadership, which has left the state unit in the lurch. The saffron outfit, which once was gung-ho about its Look East politics, will have to go back to the drawing board and restrategise. It needs a fresh plan and new charismatic leaders, and must make structural changes to even stand a chance against the ruling party. Against the rampaging election machine of Naveen's BJD, second guessing just won't do.

The ombudsmen, brought in after the 2011 anti-corruption movement, have become powerless both at the Centre and in the states. What should be done to revive the institutions?

A CASE FOR REFORMING LOKPAL AND LOKAYUKTA



KALEESWARAM RAJ

Lawyer, Supreme Court of India

SOUMYADIP SINHA

The anti-corruption movement in India has a disappointing past and a staggering present. The plea for a Lokpal to fight corruption was often linked with the political and electoral interests of the day. Once these interests are fulfilled, no one bothers about the contamination in the system. In 2011, the agitation led by Anna Hazare showed a different brand of civil society movement that questioned the culture of kickbacks and bribery at all levels of power. The protestors demanded installation of a Lokpal to fight the hazards of corruption effectively. This struggle led by Hazare even changed the political equations in the country. The Lokpal and Lokayukta Act was passed by Parliament in 2013. The Act came into force from 16 January 2014. Nevertheless, the voice of the agitators was substantially reflected in the election result that followed. The Congress-led coalition was unseated and a new regime under Narendra Modi was put in place.

It took years, thereafter, to materialise the devices stipulated in the statute. The Supreme Court in Common Cause V. Union of India (2017) hoped that the proposed Lokpal and Lokayuktas would further "strengthen the existing legal and institutional mechanism" to ensure cleanliness in public life. The judgment reiterated the rhetoric of "zero tolerance against corruption". The court appreciated the legislative gesture and hoped for a better and more efficient anti-corruption ombudsman in India. The court aptly quoted Justice Krishna Iyer from Special Courts Bill, 1978: "Law is what law does, not what law says and the moral gap between word and deed menaces people's faith in life and law. The tragedy, then, is that democracy becomes a casualty."

It was only in 2019 that the Centre could establish a Lokpal. Justice Pinaki Chandra Ghose, a former judge of the Supreme Court, was appointed as the chairman of the body. Apart from the chairperson, the Lokpal is supposed to have eight members at the maximum. This institution must deal with allegations of corruption against persons in power—both political and administrative, as indicated in the enactment.

In the year 2019, the Lokpal received 1,427 complaints. In 2020–21, the number dipped to a mere 110. Reports say that during the first half of 2021, only 30 complaints were filed before the Lokpal. The reduced number of complaints does not indicate the decline of corruption. According to the Corruption Perception Index Report released by Transparency International this year, India ranks at 85 among the 180 countries surveyed. The steep reduction in the number of cases before the Lokpal only indicates the institutional failure and trust deficit. This fall was not accidental. The Centre's role in it was very clear. One judicial member, Justice Dilip B Bhosale, a former chief justice of the Allahabad High Court, resigned from the Lokpal on the ground that the body was essentially dysfunctional. Budgetary allocations were drastically curtailed. There was delay even in forming the procedural rules to facilitate and process the complaints. Lokpal suffered due to lack of human resources and infrastructural facilities. It was a failure. An amount of about ₹60 crore spent for the body did not yield any substantial public good. During the last three years, no remarkable achievement could be credited to the Lokpal.

> The tragedy of Lokpal indicates the agonies of a body that is excessively dependent on all the three wings of the state for survival. ... At present, the domination of the political wing of the state is writ large in the committee that selects the Lokpal and its members. The predominance now given to retired judges also needs reconsideration

The Lokayuktas in the states followed suit. In Kerala, by way of a controversial ordinance, the Left government has recently amended Section 14 of the Lok Ayukta Act in the state. As a result, the report of the Lok Ayukta becomes merely recommendatory, whereas before the amendment, it could effectively unseat a public servant or a minister when there were adverse remarks. In West Bengal too, the Lokayukta has been reduced to a powerless body. The situation in almost all other states is similar.

India's Lokpal-Lokayukta experiments and experiences prompt us to ask if this ombudsman system even suits us. We started to debate about Lokpal in Parliament since 1963. In a talk delivered in 1968 at the Patna University, K Hanumanthaiya rightly said that conceptually, the ombudsman as an establishment must be free from the executive, legislature and judiciary. Historically, this Scandinavian invention performed well in some small countries, while it failed in several other nations including India. Other bodies like the Human Rights Commissions and the Commissions for Women in India also have a poor track record.

We need to revamp the system perceptually, structurally and functionally. The tragedy of Lokpal indicates the agonies of a body that is excessively dependent upon all the three wings of the state for survival. In India, it suffered a setback as it was neglected by all of them.

For the Lokpal to become an independent body, we need to evolve a select committee that is equally independent. At present, the domination of the political wing of the state is writ large in the committee that selects the Lokpal and its members. The predominance now given to retired judges in the Lokpal also needs reconsideration. Lokpal should be a body of persons from different walks of life who have impeccable integrity and who are held in high esteem by the public. It is necessary to ensure that its recommendations have tremendous moral force and popular acceptability. The very objective of an anti-corruption ombudsman is this ethical check. But due to an unimaginative legislation followed by the executive's apathy and judicial insensitivity, accompanied by people's lapse of memory, the Lokpal-Lokayukta System in India has touched a new low.

THE RETURN OF MANDAL RHETORIC IN U.P. POLITICS

SUPRIY RANJAN PANKAJ KUMAR

PhD candidates at CPS, JNU, associated with Peoples Pulse, a Hyderabad-based research organisation

Mandal politics was a paradigmatic shift in Indian politics. It completely changed the physicality as well as the language of doing politics. The Parliament and Assemblies, for the first time, mirrored the cleavages and antagonisms of Indian society. It is in this sense that Mandal politics signified the deepening of democracy in India. Much analysis has focused on the representational democratisation that this politics brought in. But the change in the languages and idioms of doing politics has received scant attention.

Leaders like Lalu Prasad Yadav became the face of such a new brand of politics. Vernacular performativity and rhetoric took centre stage during election campaigns and debates within the Houses. However, such a method appears to have run out of favour among the heirs of Mandal politics. Nonetheless, Mandal rhetoric seems to be returning with the rise of Om Prakash Rajbhar and Swami Prasad Maurya in the Hindi heartland.

There are profound similarities between these two leaders. Both of them have a strong presence in Purvanchal; they are erstwhile leaders of the BSP; both of them are street fighters, full-time politicians who rose to prominence due to their sheer struggle; and both enjoy a good command over their respective caste groups. No one can deny the fact that it was a realignment of these two leaders with the SP that made the Akhilesh Yadav-led party a formidable force and generated a belief among its cadre that the invincible BJP could be dethroned. The fate of the SP alliance in the region largely depends on the performance of these two new entrants.

While both have aligned themselves with the Samajwadi bandwagon this time, their modalities and rhetoric seem to be completely at odds with their major alliance partners or its main leader. We identify ways in which the modalities of doing politics of these two leaders marks a break with other leaders and parties in the current election season.

It would not be an exaggeration to claim that the fiery, energetic and passionate speeches of these two leaders have added a spark to an otherwise dull electoral campaign. The SP alliance seems to have deliberately devised a campaign in which two different styles of doing politics run parallel to each other. Akhilesh has largely kept himself limited to those broad issues that cut across communities such as inflation, agrarian distress, unemployment, etc. Rajbhar and Maurya, on the other hand, have aggressively pitched the issues and concerns of the Dalits and backward castes. The alleged violation of reservation norms in recruitment of 69,000 teachers, threat to reservation due to rampant privatisation, favouritism shown by Yogi towards his own community, caste-based encounters of the marginalised, and demand for a caste census are the topics mainly raised in their campaign speeches. Most importantly, the force and power with which they raise these issues are rare to be found among the politicians of the new generation. They are not even hesitant to take on a particular community as their main political rival.

The identification of political enemies in sociological terms was one of the defining features of Mandal politics during the 90s. For example, the BSP's slogans like tilak taraju or talwar inko maro jute char embodied a historical bloc of the oppressed against the traditionally higher castes. Slogans like these are rare these days.

> Mandal rhetoric seems to be returning with the rise of Om Prakash Rajbhar and Swami Prasad Maurya in the Hindi heartland. They are not even hesitant to take on a particular community as their main political rival. Identifying political enemies in sociological terms was one of the defining features of Mandal politics in the 90s

Electoral compulsions have forced parties to employ a catch-all formula, as evident in the transformation of the BSP from raising demands of the Bahujan to Sarvajan.

Contrary to this, the formation of a historical bloc of the oppressed is still the key to the politics of Maurya and Rajbhar. For example, in his inaugural speech while joining the SP on January 14, Maurya said: "Sarkar banawe Dalit our picture, aur malai khawe wo log agre, panch fisdi log" (Government is formed by Dalit and backwards, while the benefits are being accrued by the upper castes who are merely 5%).

However, the return of the Mandal style of politics is not limited to rhetoric. Instead, it manifests in the issues and concerns as well. In a word, it signifies the return of Samman politics. While demands for dignity and self-respect were the central axis of Mandal politics, development seems to have overshadowed its centrality in recent years. Concerns of differentiated citizenship seem to have been eclipsed by the depoliticised discourse of development.

Historically, Mandal politics has worked as a bulwark against the Hindutva forces. There is no doubt that the BJP's aggressive Hindutva agenda has forced mainstream parties to reorient towards soft Hindutva. As a result, parties often seem to be silent about the substantive issues and concerns of the Muslim minority. What is striking about both these leaders is the fact that they routinely try to puncture the BJP's idea of united Hindus by bringing the caste fault line to its fore.

The central question that haunts Indian politics in recent times pertains to the definition of Hindu identity and what constitutes Hinduism. The BJP may have taken the lead in settling this question in its own political ways. Leaders like Rajbhar and Maurya are important because they try to unsettle this perennial question in their distinctive and vernacular ways.

Maurya repeatedly asks during rallies why the downtrodden become Hindus for the BJP only during the elections. He even says that such politics, in which the majority of Dalits and backwards are not considered to be Hindus and treated as inferior, should be thrown into the dustbin.

Akhilesh deliberately avoids using such aggressive language, which these two leaders routinely do. Maurya and Rajbhar can afford to be aggressive, for they have command over their respective communities. Being a caste-specific outfit, they can go on the offensive, as they hardly aspire to be a catch-all party. An offensive campaign style further galvanises their core voters.

To take on the BJP juggernaut, a fresh and broad-based social narrative is needed. To puncture the discourse of homogenising Hinduism, the return to the questions of social cleavages is indispensable. Both Maurya and Rajbhar embody the social antagonism that ruptures the hegemonic Hindutva narrative.

Gandhis should step down

As per the exit polls, the Congress is set to face a complete rout in Uttar Pradesh. It is high time the mother, son and daughter step down and save the Congress from further deterioration.
MT Thomas, Peruva

BJP to win UP?

The exit polls have forecast a BJP win in UP, Uttarakhand and Manipur, while the AAP is tipped to replace the Congress and storm to power in Punjab. Almost all predict a cliffhanger in Goa where the BJP and the GOP are engaged in a close fight. However, the SP and the BSP, the BJP's chief rivals in UP, have maintained that they would prove the exit polls wrong. A loss in UP would dent the BJP's image.

Graver problem ignored

This is with reference to Winning the narrative battle, but losing the war (Mar 7). The Government of India, because of its past experience and conviction, may be able to accomplish the evacuation of our medical students from Ukraine fairly successfully. But the graver problem of brain drain along with the concomitant flight of capital goes unnoticed. It is time the government addresses this issue. It should make sure that our universities are competitive, attractive and affordable.

Address brain drain

There were nearly 17,000 Indian students in Ukraine. There are many more in countries like the US, UK and Canada. So a lot of our money goes abroad. We are also paying for the education of many highly qualified professionals who are now serving foreign countries. Can't we stop this and make use of the capital and talent for our economy and society?

Facilitated by ceasefire and out of war zone in Sumy, Indians recall horrid days of food shortage and power cuts

ANKITA UPADHYAY @ New Delhi

AS many as 682 students stuck at Sumy State University have finally left the war-stricken city and moved towards Poltava from where they will board trains for western Ukraine to be evacuated to India.

The students expressed happiness and thanked the government of India and the Indian Embassy for evacuating the students after the delay of three days.

According to Pinaki Ranjan, a 5th year student from Assam's Nagaon, buses were arranged for the students to move to Poltava from where they will be evacuated to Romania and later to India. "The students were also joined by officials from the Indian Embassy and their university officials as well," said Pinaki. "We want to thank our government, diplomats, the Red Cross Society for this safe evacuation operation."

On Monday, the mood became sombre as students were asked to deboard the buses at the last minute after the Indian Embassy reportedly informed the college that it would not be safe for them to embark on their journey to the Romania border.

According to Pinaki, only three buses had arrived for more than 600 students. But he added more buses were brought on Tuesday.

Stuck in Sumy since the beginning of the war between Russia and Ukraine, the group of students had become restless as several requests to evacuate did not work out. On Saturday, the students had released a video stating that they will leave on their own and walk towards the Russian border. However, after an assurance from the government and a call from the PMO, the students backed out.

According to Arindrom Phukon, a 4th year MBBS student, the situation at Sumy had become terrible with shortage of food and water along with regular electricity cuts. "We were hearing sounds of bomb explosions every hour. It had become a challenging task to enter bunkers. We are very happy that we are going back to safer zones and later to our country."

Need to be war-ready: Gen

New Delhi: The ongoing Ukraine-Russia conflict shows that a conventional war could happen, Army Chief Gen M M Naravane said. In response to a query, he underlined that the war was being fought in a physical domain. "Is the war being fought in cyberspace or through AC chambers?" he rhetorically asked, adding that this war shows that a "conventional war could happen".

Flight delayed to fit in group

New Delhi: SpiceJet delayed its evacuation flight from Suceava in Romania by approximately three hours on Monday night for a group of 36 Indian students who were stranded at the Ukraine-Romania border. A decision was taken to wait for the students who would be travelling by road to the airport. The departure of the flight was revised thrice as the SpiceJet team waited for the Indian students to arrive.

Nearly 500 back in MP

Bhopal: The Madhya Pradesh government on Tuesday said that 496 people from the state have returned safely so far under Operation Ganga. Home Minister Narottam Mishra also said that some students from MP are reportedly stuck in Sumy city. 'If students from MP, if any, are stranded in Sumy, their families should immediately inform the home department," he appealed.

STEEL AND ALLIED INDUSTRIES REEL UNDER PRICE HIKE

HARPREET BAJWA @Chandigarh

RUSSIA and Ukraine account for nearly 20 per cent of the global export of steel. In the aftermath of the war, the price of steel has gone up in India by ₹14,000 per tonne. This has affected construction, auto-parts and bicycle industries.

To save the domestic steel consuming industries, PM Narendra Modi has been urged to intervene and ban the export of iron ore, withdraw duties and customs on import of steel and impose a 10 per cent export duty.

Talking to this newspaper, president of the All Industries and Trade Forum, Badish Jindal said, "Fifteen days back, steel ingot prices were ₹47,000 per tonne. Today, it is ₹61,000 per tonne. It's almost a 25 per cent rise. Due to this, steel-consuming industries have suffered losses of ₹50,000 crore. On Monday, we wrote to the PM demanding ban on export of iron ore, withdrawal of all duties and customs from import of any kind of steel and a 10 per cent export duty on steel and steel products to save the domestic industry. Otherwise, the industry will close down."

Jindal added that the state owned steel companies have also increased their rates by ₹5,000 to ₹8,000 per tonne from March 1. "From ₹54,000, it has gone over ₹60,000. Indian steel companies have started exporting iron ore to European countries to make profits because Europe gets most of it from Russia and Ukraine."

He said that last year, 105 million tonnes of steel was produced in India, 4.50 million was imported, while 11 million was exported.

"The stock of all steel companies in Punjab have almost dried up. Per month, four lakh tonnes of primary steel material used to come to the state. Besides, Punjab manufactured 15 lakh tonnes of steel in the 300 steel furnaces and rolling mills in the state per month."

KB Thakur, secretary general of All India Cycle Manufactures Association, said: "The high rise of steel prices are directly impacting the competitive cost of bicycle manufacturing. This is having a cascade effect. Profit margins are low. For every 10 per cent increase in input cost, bicycle prices increase by 7 to 8 per cent."

Ukraine evacuation one of its kind: Hardeep Puri

PARVEZ SULTAN @ New Delhi

COMMENTING on the evacuation process for Indian students stranded in war-torn Ukraine, Union minister Hardeep Singh Puri on Tuesday said the present exercise was 'one of a kind' because the ground situation is different from the previous repatriation efforts by the government.

He added that well-coordinated measures were taken to ensure safe return of the Indian citizens. They encountered 'unique' situations, which were handled efficiently because of quick communication.

"There was a fundamental difference between the current situation and previous evacuations. The nature of the state's involvement is different. Repatriation of Indians from Sri Lanka was negotiated. During the Gulf War, large numbers of people were brought back because of military action at a particular place. Here (in Ukraine), in terms of logistics, it was a bit of a one of a kind situation. Some of them came on their own. Some were in groups. Every situation is different. Here, the ground situation was very different," he said.

He added that a humanitarian approach was adopted to evacuate people from Ukraine. "Some students wanted to bring pets but airline policies do not permit it. I intervened, requested the secretary, aviation secretary and made calls to the owners of the airlines. All of them were very cooperative and the issue was resolved. If an Indian citizen is married to a Ukrainian, can we leave them? "

Puri was part of the team of ministers sent to neighbouring countries of Ukraine under Operation Ganga. He returned from Hungary on Monday.

Talking about successful repatriation of students from the Hungarian border, the minister said one night, 1,700 had arrived and they were accommodated with the help of the MEA and social organisations.

India, China commanders to meet on March 11

MAYANK SINGH @ New Delhi

MILITARY commanders of India and China have agreed to hold the next round of talks to resolve the standoff in eastern Ladakh areas.

A stalemate prevails in these areas since the 13th round of talks in October. Before that, disengagements took place from a few standoff points.

"India and China have mutually decided to hold the 15th round of corps commander level talks on the Indian side of Chushul Moldo meeting point on March 11," said a MoD source.

Lieutenant General Anindya Sengupta will lead the Indian side. He took over as the General Officer Commanding of Leh-based Fire and Fury Corps in January. The Chinese side will be led by South Xinjiang Military District Commander Major General Yang Lin.

This level of engagement is also known as the Senior Highest Military Commander Level (SHMCL) talks.

Recent statements by both sides to find a mutually acceptable solution were encouraging and positive in nature, sources said.

Stalemate persists since the 13th round of the Corps Commander-level talks held on October 10 last year. Ground situation did not change even after the 14th Round of SHMCL talks on January 12.

The 14 rounds of talks, the sources said, resulted in the resolution of North and South Bank of Pangong Tso (north and south banks), Galwan (PP 14) and Gogra (PP 17A) areas.

Attempts are on to disengage troops from Hot Springs (Patrolling Point 15). Standoff also persists at Depsang Y-Junction and Demchok. The Depsang standoff has resulted in the obstruction of Indian troop movement to the traditional Patrolling Points (PP) PP 10, PP11, PP 11A, PP12 and PP13.

The talk agenda remains disengagement at standoffs in Hot Springs, Depsang and Demchok.

Nari Shakti: India pays tribute to women doers

NEW DELHI: Two artisans from Tamil Nadu, a technologist from Karnataka, a Down-syndrome affected Kathak dancer from Maharashtra, an NGO worker from Karnataka who put an end to the practice of Devdasi and a wheelchair-bound social worker from Jammu and Kashmir were among the 29 women achievers conferred the Nari Shakti Puraskar by President Ram Nath Kovind on International Women's Day.

Among the 2020-2021 awardees are Jaya Muthu and Tejamma, artisans from Nilgiris district in Tamil Nadu. They were awarded for their extraordinary contribution in persevering and promoting the age-old Toda embroidery.

The award was also given to renowned psychiatrist Thara Rangaswamy. She is co-founder and vice-chairperson of Schizophrenia Research Foundation in Chennai.

Three women achievers from Karnataka, including technologist Nivruti Rai, country head of Intel India Radhika Menon, first woman captain of Merchant Navy and Shobha Gasti, who worked to put an end to the practice of forced Devadasi, were also among the awardees, according to a press statement. ENS

Infiltration into J&K on the decline, says Centre

SANA SHAKIL @ New Delhi

THE number of terrorists stationed across the border in Pakistan occupied Kashmir, ready to be pushed in India, has decreased, according to latest intelligence inputs.

Sources in intelligence agencies told this newspaper that the number of terrorists parked across the Line of Control (LoC) in Kashmir as well as Jammu has almost halved.

Around 70 terrorists were waiting to infiltrate into Jammu and Kashmir by the end of January. This number was around 115 during the corresponding period in 2021. In December, around 175 terrorists were waiting at launch pads across the LoC to infiltrate into the valley, according to an internal report prepared by the Ministry of Home Affairs.

EAGLE EYE ON TERROR DESIGNS

	January 2022	December 2021	January 2021
Terrorists waiting to infiltrate	Around 70	Around 175	Around 115
Valley region	Around 20	Around 58	Around 10
Jammu region	Around 50	Around 117	Around 105

Sources said better coordination among security agencies and defence forces is one of the main reasons why the overall situation at LoC is relatively more peaceful. "There is a lot of synergy between the Army and the BSF. Our area dominations and surveillance techniques have made infiltrations very difficult for terrorists. Whenever anyone is seen crossing the LoC, that person is challenged," said a senior official.

A senior MHA official said the lower number of terrorists waiting to sneak into India also shows that Pakistan has been trying to come out of the "grey list" of the Financial Action Task Force (FATF).

The FATF has announced that Pakistan will continue to be in its 'grey list' and directed it to do more in investigating and prosecuting senior leaders and commanders of UN-designated terrorist groups for terror financing.

There is a considerable decrease in terrorists camping across the border and waiting to sneak through Keran, Tangdhar, Uri sectors (Kashmir) and Poonch, Krishna Ghati, Bhimber Gali, Naushera and Hiranagar sectors (Jammu), according to the MHA report.

'Youths used for grenade strikes'

Srinagar: After two civilians were killed in a grenade attack on Sunday, a senior army commander said militants were using young men to lob grenades at crowded places in Kashmir. "It (Sunday grenade attack) was a cowardice act as women, men and children were doing their daily business and shopping," GOC of Army's 15 Corps, Lt Gen D P Pandey said. Having realised that they were unable to do major difference, people propagating the nexus and trying to push terrorism are using hybrid terrorists to hurl grenades, he said.

FOOD RELIEF

Third tranche of wheat leaves for Afghanistan

NEW DELHI: India on Tuesday sent 2,000 metric tonnes (MT) of wheat to Afghanistan, as a part of its humanitarian aid to the neighbouring country.

India has committed to provide 50,000 MT of wheat, which will be distributed by the UN World Food Programme. The first tranche of 2,500 MT was sent on February 22. Earlier this month, India dispatched the second shipment of 2,000 MT of wheat to Afghanistan.

Interestingly, a Taliban official had recently condemned Pakistan for providing low-quality wheat and complimented the wheat donated by India. A video had gone viral on Twitter and other social media platforms in which the official is heard slamming Pakistan for sending poor quality of wheat.

Another activist from Afghanistan shared similar thoughts on the quality of wheat that Pakistan had sent to Afghanistan. "Wheat donated by Pakistan is all worn out and spoilt... India has always helped Afghanistan and very honestly," tweeted Najib Farhodi, a political activist from Afghanistan. ENS

Down, not out: Raje message to BJP brass as she vows to follow in mom's steps

JAIPUR: Billed as a show of strength, senior BJP leader Vasundhara Raje celebrated her 69th birthday at Bundi's Keshoraipatan on Tuesday in a grand way that sent a message to her detractors as well as the Congress government of her undiminished clout.

The message was clear despite the former Rajasthan CM claiming that the event was religious and personal. Thousands of supporters, including senior leaders, welcomed her even as a section of the BJP distanced itself describing the programme was exclusively by Raje supporters.

"I am seeing that people have come from all 33 districts. They are here not only from Hadoti but from every corner of the state. The whole of Rajasthan is here. Seeing this love, blessings and support, I am overwhelmed. You all are my energy, my strength," she said.

Raje called upon BJP workers to ensure that the lotus should bloom again in Rajasthan. "Let us send off this Ashok Gehlot government, who made false promises, and form a BJP government with a thumping majority."

In her address, Raje specifically mentioned her mother Rajmata Vijaya Raje Scindia and reminded the top brass of her mother's contribution to building the BJP. She claimed herself as her real heir. "Rajmata went to jail but never bowed down. I am her daughter. I am trying to follow her footsteps," she said in a direct message to her detractors. Rajesh Asnani

ASSEMBLY ELECTION 2022 DECIDE

'Bulldozer' dominated campaign discourse

LUCKNOW: The word which echoed the loudest in battle ground UP during the seven-phased electoral battle was 'bulldozer'. While it dominated the discourse of the Samajwadi Party as a jibe against UP CM Yogi Adityanath to reflect his hot pursuit of a particular community in the name of law and order, the BJP, on the other, donned it as an honour. However, some times, the high octane campaign of the parties got so personalised and high on rhetoric that the real issues were pushed to the background.

32.99L booked for poll code violation in UP

LUCKNOW: "Preventive action was taken against 32.99 lakh people across the state," Chief Electoral Officer Ajay Kumar Shukla said. A total of 2,145 FIRs were lodged for alleged violation of the model code of conduct during the Uttar Pradesh Assembly elections, the chief electoral officer said. He said ₹103.56 crore cash, 17,640 kg drugs worth ₹48.47 crore and over 22.94 litres of liquor worth ₹62.13 crore were seized since the poll code came into effect on January 8.

PARTIES PREPARE FOR D-DAY, OPEN TO POST-POLL ALLIANCES

BJP confident of victory in Goa, Uttarakhand; Congress deputes crisis managers in 4 states

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

AHEAD of counting of votes on Thursday, both the BJP and Congress are preparing for all possible scenarios, especially in Goa and Uttarakhand, where exit polls have shown it to be a close finish.

Goa Chief Minister Pramod Sawant on Tuesday met Prime Minister Narendra Modi, and expressed confidence that the BJP will form the government.

Both parties are looking at the option of seeking support from the Maharashtrawadi Gomantak Party (MGP) and Independents if they fall short of the majority mark of 21 in the 40-member Assembly.

There is speculation that Pramod Sawant may not continue as chief minister if the BJP has to hammer out post-poll alliances with other parties.

In 2017, the MGP had lent support to the BJP after the results, but this time it contested in alliance with the Trinamool Congress. In 2017, the Congress had emerged as the single largest party but failed to form the government as the BJP acted swiftly and forged alliances with MGP, GFP and Independents.

"All options are being considered and plans are already in place for possible alliances in Goa. Senior leadership will hold a series of meetings and decisions will be taken based on the situation in each state," said a Congress leader.

In Uttarakhand, Chhattisgarh CM Bhupesh Baghel and Rajya Sabha MP Deepender Hooda will be the Congress crisis managers even as CM Pushkar Singh Dhami exuded confidence that BJP's performance would exceed projections.

Despite exit polls giving full majority to AAP in Punjab, the Congress has sent Ajay Maken as observer along with Pawan Khera. For Manipur, the party has appointed Chhattisgarh minister TS Singhdeo and senior leaders Mukul Wasnik and Vincent Pala as observers.

Akhilesh claims BJP stealing votes, EC tampering EVMs

NAMITA BAJPAI @ Lucknow

WITH eWith exit polls predicting BJP's return to power in Uttar Pradesh, allegations and squabbles are flying thick and fast. Two days before the counting of votes, Samajwadi Party (SP) chief Akhilesh Yadav alleged that BJP was "stealing votes" by manipulating the district magistrates, who are entrusted with guarding the EVMs, and also accused Election Commission officials of tampering with them.

Interacting with media persons on Tuesday, the SP chief claimed that trucks with EVMs 'stolen' from a polling centre in Varanasi were caught by party workers. The DM was transporting EVMs without giving any information to the local candidates, he said, asking the EC to look into the matter.

"This is theft. We need to save our votes," he added, calling upon his party workers to be alert and vigilant. "We may go to court against it but before that, I want to appeal to SP workers to save democracy as this is the last chance to do so." The SP chief also dismissed the exit polls saying they were aimed at creating a perception that the BJP was winning.

Meanwhile, SP candidates are keeping a hawk's eye on EVM strong rooms. In a video doing the rounds on social media, candidate from Hastinapur Yogesh Verma is seen using binoculars to keep a watch on the EVMs.

Rejecting the SP's allegations, Additional Chief Secretary, Information, Navneet Sehgal, said that in Varanasi, 'trial EVMs' were being transported to impart hands-on training to officials deployed for the counting of votes.

"Workers of some political parties stopped the truck and spread the rumour about EVM tampering. The genuine EVMs are in the strong room under the tight vigil of paramilitary forces, EC observers and CCTV camera," said Sehgal.

TMC only alternative to BJP, UPA no longer exists: Mamata

BJP is still in power as there is no alternative. The day there is one, it will be ousted. The TMC will emerge as the only force in the 2024 elections —Mamata Banerjee, Chief Minister

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Kolkata

TRINAMOOL Congress chief Mamata Banerjee on Tuesday said the BJP was in power at the Centre because there was no alternative and that the saffron party would be ousted the day people find a viable alternative. She also made it clear that TMC would become the only alternative force that can challenge BJP.

"BJP is still in power as there is no alternative. The day there is one, it will be ousted. The TMC will emerge as the only force in the 2024 elections," said Mamata, while addressing the party's organisational meet.

In recent occasions, she has taken potshots at Congress, saying the UPA no longer exists. Mamata also sought an alliance of opposition parties which would not be led by Congress. She never missed a chance to portray her party as the 'only' alternative to BJP after TMC's thumping victory in last year's Assembly elections.

Mamata, who was reelected the chairperson of the party, formed a new state committee comprising mostly of her loyalists. The reshuffle was done amid an apparent power tussle in the party between the old guard and the next generation leaders, who are known followers of Mamata's nephew Abhishek Banerjee.

Developments within TMC ahead of the just-concluded civic polls suggested differences between Mamata and Abhishek, who is the national general secretary of the party, as the TMC supremo preferred to keep faith on her loyalists and the latter wanted to bring in fresh faces for the municipal elections. In a recent reshuffle of the national-level hierarchy, Mamata had clipped Abhishek's wings by appointing three national vice-presidents.

BJP leader joins TMC

BJP in West Bengfal is also not a harmonious unit. On Tuesday, Jay Prakash Majumdar, the party's former tate vice-president, who was suspended for expressing discontent, joined TMC in presence of the CM. She inducted him as TMC's state unit vice-president.

Majumdar joined TMC after holding a meeting with BJP's MP and general secretary Locket Chatterjee.

UP results may impact Bihar political equations

RAMASHANKAR @ Patna

AMID the wait for results of the assembly polls held in the five states, political groups in Bihar are eager on what will be the outcomes in Uttar Pradesh. The election results – which will come out on March 10 – from the neighbouring state will directly or indirectly impact political groups in Bihar, be it the NDA or the Grand Alliance.

The results will decide the future prospects of the two constituents of the Bihar NDA – Janata Dal (United) and Vikassheel Insaan Party (VIP) – which fielded candidates against ally BJP in 26 and 55 constituencies, respectively.

The relationship among three NDA constituents got strained due to sustained campaigning launched by the VIP and the JD(U) against the BJP in UP. The upsets within the saffron party camp could be gauged from the statement of the BJP MP from Muzaffarpur Ajay Nishad, who said ahead of the results of the UP election, "Mukesh Sahani was roaring in UP, he will now virtually be begging in Bihar."

The JD(U) is, however, maintaining a low profile on the developments. "Wait for the results. We are hopeful of positive results in Uttar Pradesh and in Manipur where JD(U) is in the fray," MLC Neeraj Kumar said.

I-T raid on Aaditya Thackeray's aide

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Mumbai

THE Income Tax department on Thursday carried out a raid at the house of Rahul Kanal, a close aide of Shiv Sena minister Aaditya Thackeray. Sena accused the Centre of selectively targeting opposition-ruled states. Aaditya is the son of Maharashtra Chief Minister Uddhav Thackeray.

Aaditya said such I-T raids are happening in West Bengal, Andhra Pradesh and Maharashtra. Persons close to another Shiv Sena leader, Anil Parab, were also subjected to search and seizure operations.

"Central agencies have been misused. These agencies have become propaganda machinery for the BJP, but we will not bow down, Maharashtra will not bow down," Aaditya said.

Sena leader Sanjay Raut alleged that Enforcement Directorate (ED) officers and their agent Jitendra Nawlani extorted over ₹100 crore from builders and corporate offices. He said these officers will soon be behind bars with their agents.

"ED is like an ATM for the BJP. Whenever they need money, they use ED against developers and corporate offices to blackmail and extort," Raut alleged, adding that four ED officers have been involved in extortion. He said the names will be revealed soon.

BJP gets ready for J&K election with Nadda visit

FAYAZ WANI @ Srinagar

WITH the Delimitation Commission set to submit its report on delimitation of Assembly and Lok Saba seats in Jammu & Kashmir to the government in May, BJP president J P Nadda has asked party leaders and workers to gear up for the first-ever Assembly polls in the Union Territory.

Nadda met selected leaders of J&K BJP during his one-day visit on Monday and discussed the political situation after the scrapping of Articles 370 and 35A and bifurcation of J&K into two UTs.

The BJP chief, sources said, asked leaders and workers to gear up for Assembly polls, which is likely in October-November after completion of the delimitation exercise. "Increase your public outreach programmes and inform people about the developmental and welfare schemes launched by the Modi government pre and post Article 370 revocation. A BJP worker never takes rest and works the whole year for the masses. We have to remain attached to people. That cannot be done only at the time of elections," the BJP chief told party leaders.

Nadda, who could not chair the core group meeting of the party, asked leaders to hold such meetings every fortnight to discuss in details the political situation and party affairs.

A senior leader said Nadda's visit has rejuvenated the workers and now, the party would increase its activities across the UT. "We are always in election mode. We are ready for the polls as and when announced. Booth-level leaders and workers have been active."

Allowing the woman's plea, the high court ordered the custody of the child to the petitioner. The age of Rubika is 31 while Farooq is 59 years old.

US bans Russian oil import as Ukrainians flee cities

Refugee exodus crosses 2 million; UN confirms 406 civilian deaths

A young boy plays with a phone in a temporary shelter hosting Ukrainian refugees in a former shopping center Przemysl, in Poland, on Tuesday | AFP

WASHINGTON/KYIV

US PRESIDENT Joe Biden banned imports of Russian oil on Tuesday to punish Moscow for its invasion of Ukraine as desperate civilians fled besieged cities and fresh fighting raged.

Britain said it would also phase out Russian oil by the end of the year and the EU planned to slash gas imports by two-thirds, as Western sanctions finally began to target the economic lifeline for Russia's war.

Russian President Vladimir Putin has pressed on despite unprecedented sanctions, although Moscow agreed set up "humanitarian corridors" from four Ukrainian cities on the 13th day of the conflict.

The number of refugees flooding across Ukraine's borders to escape towns devastated by shelling and air strikes passed two million, in Europe's fastest-growing refugee crisis since World War II, the UN said. Buses streamed out through an evacuation corridor from the northeastern city of Sumy while civilians on foot took an unofficial escape route out of the bombarded city of Irpin. But Ukraine accused Russia of attacking a corridor from the beleaguered southern port city of Mariupol, where aid workers said tens of thousands were living in "apocalyptic" conditions.

Kyiv has branded the corridors a publicity stunt as many of the exit routes lead into Russia or its ally Belarus. Both sides accuse each other of ceasefire violations.

Biden said Ukraine would "never be a victory" for Putin, as he announced the measures targeting the energy sector that props up the Russian economy and its war effort. The US embargo, part of a broader prohibition including Russian natural gas and coal, with US Democrats threatening legislation to force his hand, despite the likely impact on already soaring gas prices.

"Russian oil will no longer be acceptable at US ports and the American people will deal another powerful blow to (President Vladimir) Putin's war machine," Biden said, adding that the decision was taken "in close consultation" with allies.

"Ukraine will never be a victory for Putin," Biden vowed from the White House, minutes after Britain announced that Europe's second-largest economy would phase out Russian oil imports by the end of the year.

"Putin may be able to take a city, but he will never be able to hold the country."

The US ban has support from both parties in Washington, although economists have been divided on the effect of turning off the spigot, with oil prices already soaring above $120 a barrel. AFP

RUSSIA NAMES UNFRIENDLY NATIONS

Moscow has put out a list of countries and regions taking "unfriendly actions" against Russia, in the wake of severe economic sanctions. They are:

Air strikes on Sumy kill 21, including 2 children

Twenty-one people, including two children, were killed in air strikes on the besieged northeast Ukrainian city of Sumy, the authorities said. "The bodies of 21 people, including two children" were found at the site of Monday's strikes, the regional public prosecutor said on Facebook. A previous toll given by the emergency services was nine dead.

International flights to resume after 2 yrs

India had suspended the normal functioning of international flights since the onset of the Covid-19 pandemic

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU
@ New Delhi

AFTER a gap of two years, India is lifting the ban on international flights from March 27. Since the onset of the Covid-19 pandemic in March 2020, India had suspended normal functioning of international flights and from July 2020, only special flights have been operating under the air bubble arrangement.

"After having recognized the increased vaccination coverage across the globe and in consultation with the stakeholders, the Government of India has decided to resume scheduled commercial international passenger services to/from India from 27.03.2022, i.e. start of Summer Schedule 2022," the Civil Aviation Ministry said.

Now that the normal operations would resume, the bubble arrangements - which allow two nations to operate flights into each other's territories subject to certain conditions - stands revoked. At present, flights under this arrangement were operating between India and 37 countries.

Civil Aviation Minister Jyotiraditya Scindia said after deliberation with stakeholders and keeping in view the decline in the Covid-19 caseload, they have decided to resume international travel. With this step, he said, "I am very confident the sector will reach new heights!" The suspension of international flights was a big setback for Indian carriers and stakeholders of related sectors as it limited international tourists in the country.

Ronojoy Dutta, whole-time director & CEO at the country's largest airline IndiGo, said, "This step will provide impetus to the economic recovery for the sector and the nation, with borders opening for tourists. We look forward to connecting our customers to the people and places they love. We will soon be announcing the schedule for our international destinations, in accordance with these new guidelines."

Aloke Bajpai, Co-founder & Group CEO of travel firm ixigo said this is great news for all travelers and the industry, especially before the peak summer season. "Resumption of international commercial flights will also regularise the demand-supply balance resulting in lower international airfares," said Bajpai.

THAILAND

APPROVES RELAXED TAX RULES FOR DIGITAL ASSETS

Thailand's cabinet on Tuesday relaxed tax rules for investments in digital assets to help promote and develop the industry following a surge in cryptocurrency trading. The rules allow traders to offset annual losses against gains for taxes due on cyptocurrency investments, and exempt a VAT of 7% for cryptocurrency trading on authorized exchanges, Finance Minister Arkhom Termpittayapaisith told a news conference. The tax exemption, effective from April 2022 to December 2023, will also cover trading of retail central bank digital currency to be issued by the central bank, he said. Digital assets have grown fast in Thailand over the past year, with trading accounts surging to about 2 million at the end of 2021 from just 170,000 earlier that year. Meanwhile, Thailand's economy may grow less than the 3.5 to 4.5% forecast this year due to the impact of the Ukraine crisis on tourism, trade and consumption, he said. Foreign tourist arrivals in the country could also miss the ministry's forecast of 7 million this year, Arkhom said.

JAPAN

LOGS BIGGEST CURRENT ACCOUNT DEFICIT SINCE 2014

Japan recorded its largest current account deficit since the start of 2014 in January as a jump in oil import costs offset gains in investment income, with continuing uncertainty due to the Ukraine crisis and Covid-19 pandemic. The current account data highlighted the dependence of Japan's resource-deficient economy on imports of commodities and raw materials, which caused trade deficit to widen. Japan posted a CAD of $10.31 billion in January, the data showed. It was the second straight month of deficit and marked the second largest deficit under comparable data going back to 1985. Surging fuel costs drove up the value of imports by 39.9% in January from a year earlier, outpacing a 15.2% rise in exports. In addition, Japan's trade deficit with China widened in January. China-bound exports slowed before the Lunar New Year break while imports surged due to stocking demand before the holiday period. Japan earns steady and hefty return from its past investment in securities and direct investment overseas, which have replaced trade as the main driver of its current account surplus in recent years.

SOUTH KOREA

APPROVES RULES ON APP STORE LAW TARGETING APPLE

South Korea approved detailed rules for a law banning dominant app store operators such as Apple Inc and Alphabet's Google from forcing software developers to use their payments systems, the country's telecommunications regulator said on Tuesday. South Korea passed the law, an amendment to the Telecommunication Business Act, last year. It was the first such curb by a major economy on Apple and Google, which face global criticism for requiring the use of proprietary payment systems that charge commissions of up to 30%. The rules will be put into effect on March 15. They specify that the law bars "the act of forcing a specific payment method to a provider of mobile content" by unfairly utilising the app market operator's status, the regulator Korea Communications Commission (KCC) said in a statement. Barred acts include app market operators unfairly delaying the review of mobile content, or refusing, delaying, restricting, deleting, or blocking the registration, renewal, or inspection of mobile content that uses third-party payment methods.

APPROVAL OF DEAL

Future group to seek shareholder approval for RIL deal on Apr 20

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Mumbai

FUTURE group has convened a meeting of its shareholders and creditors next month to approve the sale of Future Retail's assets to RIL, after getting directions from the NCLT for the same.

Some of the group companies such as Future Consumer and Future Market Networks in updates to the exchanges said a meeting of the shareholders was fixed for April 20 and that for secured and unsecured creditors had been fixed for April 21.

RIL and Future in August 2020 had reached a deal whereby the former agreed to buy the retail, logistics and warehouse assets of the Future group for ₹24,713 crore. The deal was stalled by Amazon on the ground that it violated certain contractual agreements it had entered into while purchasing a stake in Future Coupons, a Future group promoter entity, which gave the e-comm giant an indirect 3.58% stake in Future Retail.

After several rounds of legal battles, the SC on February 15 , 2022 directed NCLT to pass an order on whether a meeting of Future shareholders could be convened to approve the deal. The NCLT on February 28 passed an order allowing the Company to conduct the meetings of its Shareholders and Creditors seeking their approval for the deal while dismissing Amazon's application against the same.

Shareholders meet

NCLT on February 28 allowed the company to conduct meetings of its Shareholders and Creditors seeking their approval for the deal while dismissing Amazon's application

Interestingly, the decision to convene the shareholder meetings comes in the wake of Future group and Amazon trying to resolve their differences over the deal by March 15, as per an SC order, which gave them 10 days to thrash out a solution.

Meanwhile, the Bombay HC set aside a lower court order restraining Future Enterprises Limited (FEL) from selling its stake in Future Generali India Insurance Company to its JV partner Generali group. The ex parte order was passed in a suit filed by IDBI Trusteeship Services Ltd against FEL, as it had subscribed to FEL debentures worth ₹1070 crore on behalf of its bondholders.

CBI questions CMIE's Ajay Shah in NSE colocation case

RAM SAHGAL @ Mumbai

THE CBI, which arrested Chitra Ramkrishna, former MD & CEO of NSE on March 6, has recently questioned Ajay Shah, board member of Centre for Monitoring Indian Economy (CMIE), besides focusing on the alleged role of one Infotech Financials and brokers such as OPG Securities in the colocation scam between 2009 and 2013. Shah was reportedly questioned by CBI on Sunday and will be called in again, said a source privy to the development.

A CBI official and Ajay Shah were not immediately available for comment. The federal investigative agency has alleged that Chitra had facilitated the passing on of NSE's "confidential" trading data to Shah and Infotech Financials, knowing fully well that the latter provided algorithmic software, christened Chanakya, to brokers on NSE and that there was an inherent conflict of interest as one of the directors of Infotech Financials is the wife of Suprabhat Lala, SVP, NSE, besides being Shah's sister-in-law.

Brokers like OPG used this algorithmic software while allegedly manipulating the server architecture in NSE's colocation facilities to gain undue advantage over other brokers.

The architecture was such that tick by tick (TBT) price feeds were disseminated sequentially to brokers in the NSE's colo facilities. However, OPG allegedly colluded with the NSE data centre to be among the first three to access the TBT server and accessed the secondary server of the exchange where the low load ensured it received information seconds before other brokers.

Passing on of trading data

The investigative agency alleged Chitra facilitated the passing on of NSE's "confidential" trading data to Shah & Infotech Financials, knowing the latter provided algorithmic software to brokers on NSE

Hike in fuel prices imminent: Hardeep Singh Puri

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU
@ New Delhi

GIVING a hint that a hike in fuel price is imminent in the next few days, Petroleum minister Hardeep Singh Puri on Tuesday said there is a war-like situation in one part of the world and oil companies will factor that in. The minister, while addressing the press, also mentioned that the government will take decisions in the best interest of our citizens.

"Oil prices are determined by global prices. There is a war-like situation in one part of the country. The oil companies will factor that in. We will take decisions in the best interest of our citizens," said Puri.

Oil Marketing Companies in India haven't revised the fuel prices for more than three months, despite surging crude prices globally.

The ongoing war between Ukraine and Russia has only aggravated the situation; the price of crude oil in the International market is touching a new high everyday.

Brent Crude on 7 March elevated to $139 per barrel, the highest since 2008. However, it contracted to $129.22 on 8 March. Brent Crude had touched an all-time high of $147.50 a barrel in July 2008.

The minister denied that the government had any control on fuel price and it is controlled due to election.

"To say that the government had controlled oil prices due to elections is not correct," said the minister. He also said that the government will make sure that energy demand and requirements are met.

"I assure you all that there will be no shortage of crude oil. We will make sure that our energy requirements are met, even though 85% of our requirements are dependent on imports for crude oil and 50-55% on gas," said Puri.

A research by state Bank of India's economic wing noted that the diesel and petrol prices should have been higher by ₹7-14 by now. The report also highlighted that the intensifying geopolitical tensions in Europe is going to cost India at least 1 lakh crore in this fiscal year.

Ahead of buyback, share prices of TCS jump over 3%

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU
@ New Delhi

SHARE prices of Tata Consultancy Services (TCS) on Tuesday surged over 3% amidst rumour that the IT major is planning to revamp the organisation structure to double its revenue. The surge in stock, which witnessed significant sell-off in the recent correction, also comes a day before the company is initiating its big buyback scheme.

TCS is planning to revamp the organisation structure to align with customers more closely, as it aims to achieve $50 billion (about ₹3.89 lakh crore) revenue by 2030 from $25 billion revenue in 2021, a source aware of the development said on Tuesday. According to reports, the company is planning to create an integrated organisational structure based on 'curated customer journeys'.

"TCS is mulling to create two new business groups that will augment the current structure of industry vertical units and markets, resulting in a new integrated organisational structure," a source said. With this new structure, TCS plans to focus on the customer journey, starting from acquisition incubation, growth and transformation.

Coming to TCS's ₹18,000 crore share buyback, the offer will open on March 9 and close on March 23. The company in February had announced the share buyback programme entailing 4 crore shares at ₹4,500 apiece.

Pipavav Shipyard may be sold by March 10; lenders stare at 90-95% haircut

SHAHID FARIDI @ New Delhi

INDIA'S largest drydock Pipavav Shipyard is likely to be sold by March 10 this year at a price that would require the lenders to take a 90-95% haircut. Reliance Naval and Engineering Ltd (RNEL), the present owner of Pipavav Shipyard, has been undergoing Corporate Insolvency Resolution Process (CIRP) under the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code (IBC) since January 2020.

The lenders are currently voting on bids by Hazel Mercantile-Swan Energy consortium and Navin Jindal-owned JSPL. The voting on proposals of these two companies started on February 25, 2022 and is likely to end around March 10, 2022. Sources said the net present value of Hazel-Swan plan is estimated around ₹1,200 crore and that of JSPL is around ₹700 crore. RNEL owes ₹12,400 crore to lenders. Hence, total recovery for the lenders under the Hazel-Swan plan would be 9.8% and under JSPL plan 5.6%, resulting in a haircut of 90% to 95% for lenders. Sources said some lenders had raised the issue of eligibility of one of the bidders -- Hazel-Swan consortium.

Swan Energy, owned by Mumbai-based businessman Nikhil Merchant, holds 74% stake in the special purpose vehicle set up with Hazel Mercantile to bid for RNEL.

According to reports, Nikhil Merchant was a director on the board of the Navi Mumbai Smart City Infrastructure Ltd, which has defaulted on bank loans and those loans have been classified as a non performing asset (NPA) by the banks.

Merchant was on the board of this company from 2015 to till December 2021, and he resigned much after submitting the resolution plan for Pipavav Shipyard. Similarly, the question of eligibility of Minesh Shah, a director on the Board of Hazel Mercantile Limited, was also raised by some lenders. Shah reportedly continues on the board of various companies of HDIL Limited, another wilful defaulter.

Dish TV shareholders reject all 3 proposals in AGM

New Delhi: Embattled DTH player Dish TV on Tuesday disclosed that its shareholders have rejected all three proposals, including the adoption of financial statements and reappointment of Ashok Mathai Kurien as director, at its AGM held on December 30, 2021. The Essel group firm is currently locked in a legal battle with its single largest shareholder Yes Bank Ltd (YBL). YBL had sought reconstitution of Dish TV board by removing its Managing Director Jawahar Goel and 4 other directors, which was contested by Subhash Chandra family-led promoters, and the matter went into litigation. Dish TV did not declare the outcome of voting at its AGM on December 30, 2021, due to ongoing litigations.

Government sees possibility of tax revenue in crypto

UMA KANNAN @ Bengaluru

WITHOUT getting into if cryptocurrency will be regulated soon or banned in India, Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman on Tuesday said the consultation process is on, and she welcomed the crypto industry to participate in it.

Ashish Singhal, Founder and CEO, CoinSwitch, posed the question to the finance minister saying leading nations are taking steps to regulate the cryptocurrency sector. Responding to it, at the India Global Forum's annual summit held in Bengaluru, she said the consultations are on.

"After the process gets completed, the ministry would sit and mull over it. After the consultation, we will be talking about it (cryptocurrency)," she said. "A lot of Indians have seen a future in it; therefore, I see a possibility for revenue in it," she added. The minister had announced in the Budget that any income from virtual digital assets will be taxed at 30% and also a 1% TDS (Tax Deducted at Source) on all crypto transactions.

Talking about the proposed digital currency, she said the government sees an advantage in a central bank driven digital currency. "This year we expect the currency to come out from the central bank itself."

Stay on Ballarpur Industries liquidation

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU
@ New Delhi

THE National Company Law Appellate Tribunal (NCLAT) has stayed liquidation of Ballarpur Industries Ltd (BILT), and ordered the committee of creditors (CoC) to reconsider the revised resolution plan submitted by Finquest Financial Solutions within six weeks.

The Mumbai bench of the National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT) had on 25 January 2022 ordered liquidation of Gautam Thapar-owned BILT after the CoC rejected the only resolution plan submitted by Finquest Financial Solution, one of the financial creditors.

Staying the liquidation order, the appellate tribunal said that it is of the view that ends of justice be served in issuing direction to the CoC to reconsider the Revised Resolution Plan within a period of six weeks from today.

"It goes without saying that resolution professional should convene a meeting of CoC for reconsideration of the revised plan forthwith," said the bench of Justice Alok Bhushan.

Finquest Financial, which had appealed against the liquidation order, argued before the NCLAT that while the order of liquidation was made on 25 January 20222, the order was uploaded on NCLT website only on 22 February.

In the meanwhile, the resolution applicant had submitted its revised plan on 7th February.

Zverev put on 1-year probation for Acapulco outburst

Tokyo Olympics gold medalist Alexander Zverev was put on probation for one year by the ATP for violently hitting the chair umpire's stand repeatedly with his racket following a loss in doubles at the Mexico Open. Zverev, who is currently ranked No. 3, has until Friday to appeal the ruling of Miro Bratoev, the ATP senior vice president of rules and competition.

SEEKING TO REAP RETURNS AT HOME

Having proven his worth overseas, Vihari would want to cement his place at the No. 3 spot sooner than later

ASHIM SUNAM @Bengaluru

DETERMINATION, hard work, grit, team man and solid technique. These are some of the words, which would describe Hanuma Vihari. His performances under difficult conditions stood out in India's last tour Down Under. The bravery badge, ever since, might have helped him earn huge respect, but it is the runs, which will eventually matter the most. To be fair, the Hyderabad batter has not been a regular in the playing XI with others ahead of him in the pecking order in the past.

Now, with the experienced duo of Cheteshwar Pujara and Ajinkya Rahane dropped for the ongoing Sri Lanka Test series, the doors have opened for him to cement his place. The 28-year-old delivered in the first Test against Sri Lanka with a solid half-century, and will be eager to deliver in the day-night Test in Bengaluru, starting Saturday. The team is also going through some sort of transition phase in the longer format, and Vihari must be aware of the opportunity that lies ahead.

> I think since Vihari is there now, he has all the tools to be successful. See, there will always be competition in the Indian team. It is the case with every cricketer, he has to be consistent in whatever he does. As long as you perform, you can survive.
> John Manoj, Hanuma Vihari's childhood coach

Considering Vihari has impressed when playing abroad (of the 14 Tests, he has only played two in India), the batter needs to eye big scores at home, where the conditions are a tad easier than away. With India playing majority of the Test matches in known conditions this year, (four at home against Australia, 2 Test in Bangladesh), each and every innings in India whites will be important for Vihari.

Ahead of the Sri Lanka series, Vihari had a couple of good sessions with chief coach R Sridhar (former India fielding coach) at the Saint John's Cricket academy in Secunderabad, and childhood coach John Manoj also had a word with him then. "He is actually used to playing the long innings. I told him to 'just apply yourself and play session wise. You play for a couple of sessions, you will get a good score',''said Manoj.

Runs is the only route to cement his place in the longer format, especially when the likes of Shubman Gill and Shreyas Iyer are fighting for the two slots in the batting order. Vihari, who seems to be a like-for-like Pujara's replacement, is an ideal number three, which is his batting position for Hyderabad in the domestic circuit. For the majority of his short Test career, he has been used as a number six batter. He has to prove that he deserves the all-important number three position. The competition for slots could open up further if one adds Suryakumar Yadav, who has been doing well in limited overs cricket, in the mix.

"I think since Vihari is there now, he has all the tools to be successful. See, there will always be competition in the Indian team. It is the case with every cricketer, he has to be consistent in whatever he does. As long as you perform, you can survive. The competition will also help him exhibit this talent, which he possesses. It is very important for players to perform when there is more competition. He loves challenges and I expect him to deliver in Bengaluru and future Tests too," said Manoj, who is also the vice president of the Hyderabad Cricket Association.

MeitY's call on Asiad participation for PUBG, AoV

SWAROOP SWAMINATHAN @ Chennai

THE participation of India's athletes in two of the eight esports titles — PUBG (Asian Games version) and Arena of Valor (Asian Games version) — at the upcoming Asiad in Hangzhou will be decided by the ministry of Electronics and Information Technology (MeitY) and sports ministry.

While the preliminary qualifiers of the other six medal titles (see box) is scheduled to begin on or before March 15, the Esports Federation of India (ESFI) cannot progress with the qualifiers of the two above-mentioned titles till they get clarity from the government.

MeitY will have to rubberstamp this as both of these games were banned in India in 2020 under Section A of the IT Act.

At the time, the government said apps like PUBG was a threat to India's 'sovereignty and integrity'. "(...) mining and profiling by elements hostile to national security and defence of India, which ultimately impinges upon the sovereignty and integrity of India, is a matter of very deep and immediate concern which requires emergency measures," the statement, put out by Ministry of Electronics and Information Technology (MeitY), had said in 2020.

The PUBG version that participants will play, though, isn't going to be the original game. The technical handbook of the Asian Games says Peacekeeper Elite, the rebranded Chinese version.

India isn't the only Asian country to have banned the original game. Even China banned PUBG in 2020. Other countries to have put in place similar regulations were Pakistan, Afghanistan, Bangladesh and Nepal but most of these countries have removed the new regulations. Peacekeeper Elite is a watered down version of the original game in that the violence is toned down.

Titles (medal events)

*Arena of Valor (Asian Games version), Dota 2, Dream Three Kingdoms 2, EA SPORTS FIFA branded soccer games, Hearthstone, League of Legends, *PUBG, (Asian Games version), Street Fighter V

TITLES (DEMONSTRATION)

AESF Robot Masters Powered by Migu, AESF VR Sports Powered by Migu

*Indian participation subject to government clearance

Qualifiers to be held soon

Moving on to the other six titles, ESFI hopes to start the preliminary qualifiers within the next seven days. They wanted to start by March 10 but have now pushed that back to March 15.

The qualifiers, as of this point in time, will work in two phases.

REAL OPPORTUNITY

PSG have a great chance of making a statement against Real Madrid in one of the marquee clashes of the Champions League so far.

Man City vs Sporting |
FIRST LEG: 5-0, MAN CITY

The difference in class in the first leg was so vast. Pep Guardiola will also likely take this opportunity to rest a few of the key players ahead of Premier League and Cup fixtures. The Portuguese side have, however, done okay in the domestic league, having not lost in the last six gameweeks.

Real Madrid vs PSG |
FIRST LEG: 1-0, PSG

A lot of the pre-match talk has surrounded the fitness issues over Kylian Mbappe. Away from home, the Parisians can play on the counter. What will hamper the hosts even more is the suspensions of Casemiro and Ferland Mendy. A lot will depend on Karim Benzema and Luka Modric's ability to control games in midfield.

Creating pathways for women at grassroots

GOMESH S @ Chennai

WHEN the Equal Hue Report, written by former India cricketer Snehal Pradhan, sports journalists Karunya Keshav, and late Sidhanta Patnaik along with SLPC, was published in late 2020, some of the numbers came out were pretty startling. Take this for a sample: as many as 91.4 per cent of the athletes had to play in a boy's team as there weren't an all-girls team where they grew up; over 40 per cent of the athletes had not played in an all-women's team even at the inter-college and inter-university level.

In the next 16 months, the project has become a collaborative effort as they conducted several round table discussions, all of it anonymous, with more players, parents, coaches and private stakeholders on the societal barriers, financial hurdles and issues at the grassroots levels.

And on the 2022 International Women's Day, the Equal Hue team, GoSports Foundation and Meraki Sport & Entertainment have come together with several initiatives aimed at creating pathways for aspiring female cricketers from across the country.

The three key parts of the initiatives are to help the young girls enter the game, facilitate them to stay in it and help them develop and succeed.

As a starter, they have announced a Girls Cricket Cup for U-16 cricketers across 12 cities, essentially an inter-school tournament, with 4 teams per city.

There will be talent scouts to shortlist three players from each city for skill assessment camp from which the top 12 will progress to the next stage — Professional Excellence Programme, which will focus on need-based grants to cover training, equipment, nutrition and wellness of 32 players, aged between 16-23, per year followed by an annual assessment. The final step would be year-round monitoring and mentorship for 24 athletes per batch at Padukone Dravid Centre of Excellence, Bengaluru.

Vice-President Venkaiah Naidu inaugurated the 10th edition of the ThinkEdu Conclave, in Chennai, on Tuesday | ASHWIN PRASATH

IMPLEMENT NEP IN LETTER AND SPIRIT: V-P

Calls the policy a starting point to make education a tool for national transformation

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Chennai

In sharp contrast to the Tamil Nadu government's view that the National Education Policy (NEP) is meant for elites, Vice-President Venkaiah Naidu on Tuesday asserted that it consolidates India's educational landscape, and should be implemented in letter and spirit.

Speaking at the inaugural session of the 10th edition of the ThinkEdu Conclave, organised by TNIE, he added that NEP 2020 is the starting point to make education a tool for national transformation. The policy attempts to create a template for holistic education, and opens new job opportunities for youth, he further said.

Likening one's mother tongue to eyesight, and other languages to spectacles, the vice-president said, "Before learning any other language, we should learn our mother tongue." Besides, there should be no opposition to, or imposition of, other languages, he added. "There should not be any reservation towards learning a language as it opens growth opportunities."

With the pandemic disrupting the education sector and forcing teachers, students, and parents to quickly adapt to online media, educators must be recognised for their flexibility and commitment, Naidu said. However, the digital divide created must be minimised, and stakeholders should ensure learning opportunities are equitable and inclusive, he added.

Speaking on the occasion, TNIE's editorial director Prabhu Chawla said the pandemic has brought an opportunity to reinvent our system of learning. Highlighting that India can boast of scientific advancements at a low budget, he pointed out that many youth still drop out of higher education. "We know more about Macaulay than our Mahabharat and Ramayan. We are happier learning French than our own language, Sanskrit," Chawla said, adding that the conclave will host discussions on how to be "Indian in spirit and global in outlook".

'How can NEET assess 12 years of education?'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Chennai

QUESTIONING how 12 years of education can be evaluated with a three-hour test, State Higher Education Minister K Ponmudy on Tuesday said the Tamil Nadu government was not opposing the NEET without reason.

Speaking during the 'Not a NEET India: Respecting Regional Needs' session as part of the 10th edition of TNIE's ThinkEdu Conclave, Minister Ponmudy said Chief Minister MK Stalin has been opposing the NEET even when he was the opposition leader. The National Eligibility Entrance Test (NEET) is a national test for admitting students to medical courses across the country.

"We are not opposing the NEET without reason. After MK Stalin became CM, the AK Rajan committee was appointed to evaluate the impact of the test on students," he said.

As India takes pride in 'unity in diversity' with its different languages and cultures, the education system should also be tailored to suit the diverse population. Only urban students like those in Chennai who study CBSE syllabus may be able to prepare for the NEET without much difficulty, whereas those in rural areas will struggle, the minister said. Students with

TN Higher Education Minister Ponmudy

Tamil as their medium of instruction will be at further disadvantage as the usage of certain terms may vary when they write the NEET although their understanding of the concepts may be strong, he added.

"With the introduction of the NEET, schools and students are not taking Class 12 board exam marks seriously. They think it is enough to just clear it, and instead prepare for the NEET. As a result, coaching centres that charge ₹2-₹5 lakh have mushroomed across the State," Ponmudy said. Following the death of a Karnataka student, who had scored 97% in Class 12 but failed to secure a medical seat, in Ukraine, former chief minister HD Kumaraswamy demanded that NEET be scrapped. Several other states have now joined the chorus against the test, he added.

Further, Minister Ponmudy blamed the BJP-led Union government for attempting to introduce entrance exams at various levels, including in Classes 7 and 8, through the NEP. When the number of students enrolling in higher education is already low, this would make it even more difficult for them, he added. With the help of our MPs, the TN government is also making efforts to bring education to the State list from the concurrent list, Ponmudy said.

Not catch-up, India must overtake China, says Swamy

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Chennai

"I don't want India to catch up with China, I want India to overtake it," said Rajya Sabha member Subramanian Swamy as he sat down for a discussion on the topic, 'The Chinese Model: Can India Catch Up?'. "Before the Ching dynasty, for more than 2,000 years, China was under India's cultural influence. In China, it is dictatorship and I don't want to follow it," Swamy said.

"We have to really decide to defeat China in a war. If that happens, the whole world will support us. We alone have the potential," he said.

The biggest disagreement he had against the government at the Centre is that they are not freeing up temples from State control and are not fighting the Chinese for occupying Indian territory. "Is he (Modi) fighting the Chinese? He is just saying that they have not come inside our territory when they have taken up 4,000 sqkm," he said.

On the question of being called a "rebel" by his own party, Swamy said, "When you oppose something, argue it. When you lose, you admit. That is the old Hindu system of Shastra. Adi Shankara has perfected it." He added that it is not necessary to always toe the party line and one has to stand up for his ideology.

Stating that he is a rebel on the Ukraine issue too, Swamy said it is an unarmed nation by conventional standards with functioning democracy and freedom of speech. "It has been invaded by a superpower. The world should opposite it," he said.

Swamy also said Ram Setu, State control over temples, and other issues which he had taken up are moving slowly but succeeding. "In the Ram Mandir issue, I brought in the new idea that it was not a property dispute but a matter of faith. The preamble of the Constitution and even some sections of the IPC say that where there is faith, the court can't do anything." He complimented the Muslim community for accepting the court order. Swamy said PM Modi took credit for Ram Mandir without doing anything about it.

Edu policy is not against any institution or individual: Min

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Chennai

Karnataka Higher Education Minister Dr Ashwath Narayan CN on Tuesday said the National Education Policy (NEP) does not even have a single point that is against any institution or individual. Those who embrace it will move forward while those who don't, will bear the costs, he added.

In a discussion with senior journalist Kaveree Bamzai on 'Higher Education for Aspiring India: What Do We Need to Change?', the minister said, "NEP is holistic and inclusive. It develops students into thinkers who are confident and independent. The NEP aims to make learning a process of self-improvement."

He urged all stakeholders to work in a collaborative manner to ensure proper implementation of the NEP.

"It has been designed to empower each and every individual—irrespective of his/her social and economical background.," he said. Higher educational institutions will also get more autonomy and freedom under the NEP, he added.

Further, the minister said not a dearth of infrastructure but a lack of quality institutions is the issue currently faced by the education sector.

"We need to understand that our future can only be built on good educational institutions. We are not competing against any neighbouring State or country but against the whole world," the minister said.

Tharoor: Hinduism not about tolerance but acceptance

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Chennai

AT a time when the hijab controversy refuses to die down in the country, Congress MP Shashi Tharoor said Hinduism was not merely about tolerance but of acceptance.

Talking on the topic, 'Hinduism or Hindutva: Education and the Civilisational Debate', Tharoor drew from his own experiences of growing up in a devout Hindu family that never obliged him to join in their beliefs, his pan-Indian upbringing and his reading of Swami Vivekananda to emphasise the Hindu way of 'finding one's own truth.'

"It gave me terrific insights into accepting each other's faith as valid in its own way and not judging anyone for following their own paths," he said.

Also delving into the topic of shortage of medical seats in the country, he said there was something wrong with the system that does not allow qualified students to pursue education in India. "I don't blame one particular class of people or a set of politicians for this but it is our collective responsibility to fix it or else our students will continue to spend their parents' hard-earned money to study in other countries," Tharoor said.

"Having worked in the Ministry of Human Resource Development, I did raise this issue but I was told to mind my own business because medical seats come under the health ministry," he said. He also took a stand against the revision of history textbooks with the motive of serving "petty political purposes".

Leaving with a message to parents in the country, Tharoor said, "Don't get your children to fulfil your dreams for you. Let them follow their passion."

'Policies made, now focus on implementing them'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Chennai

While coherent policies are the bedrock on which sustainable education systems are built, they have been drafted and reworked by different governments time and again in India. What the country needs to focus on now is to implement these policies, said Manish Sisodia, Deputy Chief Minister of Delhi. He was sharing his views on the National Education Policy (NEP) with senior journalist Kaveree Bamzai on Tuesday.

"The NEPs drafted in 1966 and 1986 had many salient features. But we always fail to speak about rote learning and how a student must understand what they are being taught. The education sector needs to be a political priority and money spent on it needs to be increased," said Sisodia, adding that Delhi spends 25 per cent of its budget on education.

Manish Sisodia

He advocated the need to link education to major reforms around the world and explained how Delhi revamped most of its government schools with smart digital boards and state-of-the-art computer labs.

"Since NEPs failed to focus on visual thinking strategies, we introduced Delhi Board of School Education (DBSE), where the focus was on understanding and not rote learning. Today, over 16 lakh students study in government schools and their performance is getting better by the day. Similarly, the Delhi Teachers University was opened to prepare well-trained and highly qualified teachers," he said.

When he was asked why the children of 'influential' people still studied in private schools, Sisodia was quick to answer. "The focus must be on reforming the infrastructure to instil confidence in them. After schools were upgraded in Delhi, many judges and politicians sent their children to government schools," he said.

'Education must make a difference'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Chennai

THE purpose of education is not to make money but a difference, said monk Gaur Gopal Das on Tuesday.

Addressing the audience on 'Pursuit of Happiness: The Indian Way' during the 10th edition of the ThinkEdu Conclave, Das said, "When you make a difference, money follows. The goal and purpose of education are to make a difference, and money comes as a consequence. It also makes you stand out of the crowd and the value increases exponentially."

Mentioning education to having become more about the skill-set than the mindset, he said, "The focus must be on the mindset to ensure education is helping overall growth of the youth."

He stressed dedication to being equally important. "When you are good at something, stick with it till you reach your goal, no matter how long it takes.

If you do not put in enough effort, there is no way to get better."

Another takeaway was not to compromise and fall into a labyrinth of comparison.

According to Das, the best person to compare one's growth with is oneself. Any other means of comparison only ruins the cause, he added.

Self-care, love and acceptance are equally important for better mental health and to becoming a better version of oneself, he said.

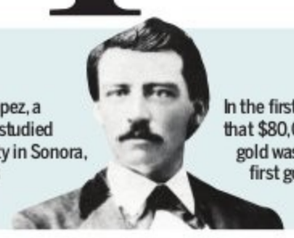
Gold discovered

The first documented discovery of gold in California occurred on this day in 1842 when a resident at Rancho San Francisco found the placer deposits in Placerita Canyon

LOOKING FOR GLITTER

The resident was Francisco Lopez, a trained mineralogist who had studied mining and French at university in Sonora, Mexico. It is noted that he was probably searching for gold



A GOLD LOAD

In the first two years, it is estimated that $80,000 to $100,000 worth of gold was found in the canyon. The first gold coin minted was taken from Lopez's load

CALIFORNIA GOLD RUSH

Around 30,000 fortune seekers reached California after gold was found at Sutter's Mill in early 1848. It reached its peak in 1852

MATCH MANIA

Cricket enthusiasts queue up to purchase tickets for the upcoming Test match at Chinnaswamy Stadium on Sunday | SHRIRAM BN

Cricket fans are ready for an action-packed weekend as India and Sri Lanka get ready for a face-off during the day/night Test match

SANATH PRASAD

THERE'S a palpable buzz in Bengaluru in the run-up to the day/night Test match between India and Sri Lanka. While cricket matches anyway draw large crowds, the enhanced excitement this time is owing to the fact that it's the first live one to be held in two years.

What is really pumping adrenaline among cricket fans is witnessing Royal Challengers Bangalore player Virat Kohli in action after a long time. Many cricket fans flooded the ticket counters at Chinnaswamy Stadium recently to buy their tickets for the Test match. Aditya Patankar and his friends were among the lucky and early ones to get the tickets. A student of industrial design, Patankar actually left his PG in Yelahanka at 5.30 am and got his tickets at 12 noon. "The queue at the stadium to buy tickets was massive. My friends and I are from Mumbai, and for the first time we got to witness the craze the city has for Kohli. We are just hoping that some historic moment unfolds in this test series against Sri Lanka," says the 20-year-old, who waited for five hours in the queue to get the ticket.

The last Test match that Prateek Thakker, a Bengaluru blogger, watched in Chinnaswamy Stadium was way back in 2010. Thakker described this as an iconic match that witnessed Cheteshwar Pujara's Test debut and Sachin Tendulkar's double century against Australia in namma Bengaluru. More than a decade later, Thakker is all pumped up to watch yet another iconic moment unfold in Bengaluru's cricket scene on March 12 when India and Sri Lanka battle it out on the sprawling grounds of the stadium.

"It is after 10 years that I am gearing up to watch a Test match in Bengaluru. I am all excited to see Kohli's 101st Test match happening here against Sri Lanka. It's a day and night match and I have booked the tickets for three days. I hope to get an opportunity to grab the pink ball this time," says Thakker.

For marketing professional Pratik Dogra, this Test is expected to create some good memories. "I really hope that Kohli gets his long-awaited century in this Test match. Although the opposition is slightly weaker, we can expect some drama. In addition, it is the first day/night Test match in Bengaluru and I am really looking forward to Jasprit Bumrah creating some magic under the lights," says Dogra, who always recalls the World Cup quarter finals between India and Pakistan in 1996, when he visits Chinnaswamy Stadium.

Akansha Rohera, who is a contemporary art student in Bengaluru, is watching a cricket match in the stadium after nearly four years. "I want to experience that cricket vibe that we were used to. Moreover, I am looking forward to seeing Bumrah bowling and picking up some wickets. I am from Mumbai and I came to Bengaluru to study. The whole funda is to join my friends here who are also from Mumbai to experience the cricket match as a family," says Rohera.

Correct answers and names of first three respondents with right answers will be featured in CE on Thursday.

1. Bengaluru had a 'Cenotaph', a 35-feet-tall monument pillar built in memory of 50-odd soldiers (British and Indians) who died in the 1791 Siege of Bangalore and other Anglo-Mysore wars. The historic pillar was demolished completely with an official sanction on October 28, 1964. A prominent road leading to the Cenotaph was also named as Cenotaph Road until a few decades back. What is the road today known as?

2. While most of the areas and roads in Bengaluru Cantonment have had European names as the British planned and built many of the extensions here, there is a road in London named after Bangalore as 'Bangalore Street'. True or False?

3. 'High Grounds' refers to an area of elevated terrain with a vantage point having a wide field of view enabling surveillance of the surrounding landscape with a military significance. An area in Bengaluru is named 'High Grounds' where Raj Bhavan, Golf Club, Balabrooie guest house, Manickavelu mansion and other prominent buildings are located. A police station named High Grounds, stood at the corner junction near the Golf Club, and was completely demolished a few years ago for road widening and was shifted to another place. On which road is the High Grounds police station presently located?

Zooming in

One of the few Sanskrit films to be screened at the ongoing Bangalore International Film Festival, Taya explores the story of a woman smashing patriarchy

IF there was one film that had to be screened on International Women's Day, Taya — a movie on a sexually hurt woman striking back against the patriarchal system — was probably the right one. Directed by G Prabha, the Sanskrit film was screened at the Bengaluru International Film Festival on Tuesday.

"It's a story that's relevant even in today's time," says Prabha, adding, "It's about a young Namboodiri woman, Kuriyedathu Savitri, also known as Thatri, who lived in the early 20th century. She was the wife of elderly Raman Namboodiri of Kuriyedath Mana in Thrissur, who questioned the judiciary and patriarchy of her time."

Being Prabha's second feature film, the scenes are confined to her place of stay. Shot over 22 days in Kerala in 2021, Taya focuses on Smarthavicharam, which questions the moral conduct of women of the community. "In the film, a woman was sexually harassed by 65 men and eventually died. Thatri gathers the evidence regarding this and goes to trial. She stands up against everyone to make a point, including the judge who is accused of harassing her," he explains, adding that this is popular Malayalam actor Nedumudi Venu and Nelliyodu Vasudevan Namboodiri's last film.

Even while working on this, Thatri knew that she would be banished from the community and village, but persuaded the jury to punish the accused," says the director, who is the former Head of the Department of Oriental Languages, Loyola College, Chennai.

"This film is still relevant today because of how our judicial system is. While Savitri took a lot to battle it out, instances like this still occur and there are many in the top-level too who misuse their power," he adds.

Presenting this film in Bengaluru after its preview at the Pune International Film Festival, Prabha is happy to see the large crowd here. "The festival is bustling and it's great to see the number of people who've turned up," he adds.

Meanwhile, the director is working on the story of his next film. "It's too soon to say anything about it. Since I'm the one who does all the work in my film, from script to storyline, it's taking time," he signs off.

FIT BIT

PADMA MATSYASANA

(FISH IN LOTUS POSE)

The pose is named after an incarnation of the god, Vishnu, who manifested himself as a large fish in order to save the earth from a flood. This asana is useful for increasing energy levels, relieving anxiety and opening the heart. Practising this posture can connect the individual to the balance of earth and water, through the grounding of the limbs into the earth, and the lifting of the chest like the crest of a wave. In a spiritual practice, it is associated with opening the Visuddha (throat) chakra. When practising, it can be helpful to visualise a blue light entering the throat and filling it with energy. Opening this chakra can transform negative energy into wisdom. It also encourages self-expression and aids in any speaking endeavour.

STEPS

- Start in Dandasana (Staff Pose). Then come into Padmasana (Lotus Pose).
- Then place your elbows on the floor right behind your sitting bones.
- Now inhale and bend your upper body back.
- Then rest the top of your head on the floor. You may hold your feet with your hands. Try not to lift your knees off the floor.
- Lift your chest up and press your lower body against the floor.
- Close your eyes and stay in this pose for three to six long breaths.
- To come out of this pose, release your feet and straighten your back. Release your legs and lie in Savasana (Corpse Pose).

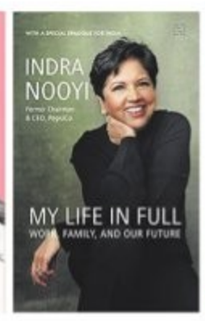
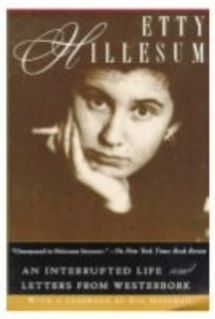
FLYLEAF

VR FEROSE

(The author is a technologist based in Silicon Valley who is gently mad about books)





WOMEN & WRITING

WHEN I relocated to a new house and was arranging all my books, I realised that I had an unintended bias. Most of my books were by male authors. So I decided that in 2022, I would read mainly women authors, preferably those I hadn't read before, and in as many genres as possible. I realised that magic happens when you leave your comfort zone!

I started the year by reading Nisha Susan's The Women Who Forgot To Invent Facebook and Other Stories which was hilarious. I could relate to it because many stories were based in Bengaluru and Kerala — both places that I have lived in. Similarly, I related to Letter from New York by Helene Hanff, which my bibliophile friend Pradeep Sebastian gifted me, since New York is a place that I visit at least thrice a year; descriptions of the city resonated in me although they were from 1978.

Looking for the Good War by Elizabeth D Samet is one of the best military books I have ever read. The book reexamines the literature, art and culture that emerged after World War II. It looks into American beliefs about the use of military force throughout the world, and our inability to accept the realities of the 21st-century's decades of devastating conflict.

I have been fortunate to have worked with two outstanding co-authors Sudha Menon and CK Meena. So, it was obvious that I read their books. Sudha Menon's most recent Recipes for Life recreates the memories of the foods we have grown up with. CK Meena's Seven Days to Somewhere is a reflection of our education system that does not allow children to follow their hearts.

I also realised that most of the popular women authors wrote fiction, my least favourite genre, and that those who veer towards non-fiction seem to write mostly personal essays or memoirs — the most recent ones being Kiran Bedi's Fearless Governance and Indra Nooyi's My Life in Full. In contrast is a book I look forward to reading: 1619 Project by Nicola Hannah Jones, a long-form journalism endeavour developed by Hannah-Jones, writers from The New York Times, and The New York Times Magazine. It aims to "reframe the country's history by placing the consequences of slavery and the contributions of Black Americans at the very center of the United States' national narrative".

As one would guess, there are plenty of books on feminism written by women. My reading list for 2022 includes Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie's We Should All be Feminists. One of my favourite genres being the graphic novel, which has long been dominated by men, I picked The Story of My Tits by breast cancer survivour Jennifer Hayden. Friends have recommended to me books by writers as divergent as Jan Morris and CS Lakshmi (Ambai).

One of the highlights of my last visit to London was visiting the bookshop, Persephone Books. This independent publishing house specialises in reprints of forgotten fiction and non-fiction from the mid-20th century mostly by women writers like EM Delafield, Diana Athill and Frances Hodgson Burnett. Each book is reprinted with a dove-grey cover and beautiful endpaper inspired by vintage fabrics. After spending a happy hour browsing, I purchased Fidelity by Susan Glaspell, An Interrupted Life: The Diaries and Letters of Etty Hillesum 1941-43 and Few Eggs and No Oranges: The diaries of Vere Hodgson 1940-45.

Now that I have decided what to read in 2022, I have cleared my desk and kept these books in front of me. They are now calling out to me to be read!
